Dear Mrs. Fulks:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Here, assured of continuous care, now rest the remains of a few of those heroic dead who fell together in the service of our country.

This cemetery will be maintained as a temporary resting place until, in accordance with the wishes of the next of kin, all remains are either placed in permanent American cemeteries overseas or returned to the Homeland for final burial.

Dear Mrs. Fulks:

This refers to your letter of August 13, concerning the personal effects of your husband, First Lieutenant Frank W. Fulks.

The Army Effects Bureau did receive some personal effects belonging to your husband. According to our records Lieutenant Fulks named his father, Mr. Howard L. Fulks, 518 North 18th Street, Omaha, Nebraska, emergency addressee and alternate beneficiary, and since the report furnished this Bureau by The Adjutant General, Washington, indicated your address was not shown, the property received here was forwarded to the father on August 11.

For your information, the transmittal of personal effects by this Bureau does not, of itself, vest title in the recipient. Such property is forwarded merely for distribution in accordance with the laws of the state of the officer's legal residence. For any further information regarding your husband's personal effects, it is suggested that you contact Mr. Fulks.

Please be assured in the event any additional property of Lieutenant Fulks is received here, it will be forwarded to you at the above address.

Yours very truly,
