

On this 7th day of Aug. nineteen hundred and forty four, the fickle finger of fate finds it expedient to trace on the roll of the

LUCKY BASTARDS CLUB

The Name of

Phillip C. Zanoua
Pilot on the Flying Fortress "Scheherzade"

For having this day achieved the remarkable record of sallying forth and returning no less than thirty times, for having braved the hazards of Hun Flak, for brinsins to Hitler and his cronies tons of bombs, for bending the Luftwaffes back; all through the courtesy of the VIII AAF who sponsors these programs in the interest of liberty lovin$ people everywhere.
