

1st Lt. M. Abraham, Oshkosh, Wis., had the pleasure of personally delivering this bomb to Adolph. He is a navigator when the "Oshkosh Bomb" was dropped he operated the toggle switch. Lt. Abraham was later killed in action.

Right: M/Sgt. Arthur I. Sanford was awarded the Bronze Star Medal while serving as crew chief. His Fort performed 31 missions with its original four engines and no mechanical failures.

Left: Lt. Gerald E. Hansen, led his Wing back safely, after the lead aircraft had been knocked out over Merseburg.

Right: Party at Thirty-Mission Haven