

6 Boro, L. I. Men Named To Coast Guard School

Washington, July 23 (AP)—Six Brooklyn and Long Island men have received appointments to the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., it was announced yesterday by Rear Admiral R. R. Waesche, commandant. The class of 124 is the largest in the history of the academy.

They are John MacNeil Dempsey, 135 78th St.; Thomas Gerard Jennings, 350 1st St., both of Brooklyn; Marion Thomas Barrentine, Oyster Bay; Gilbert Magee Jr., Queens Village; John Duward Richardson inclusive, the Brooklyn Eagle will publish a voting coupon on Page 2 of every issue.

4. METHOD OF DETERMINING WINNERS—The highest amount of votes received by any postal worker operating in Brooklyn will entitle the contestant to the first prize. Second prize will go to the nominee with the next highest votes, and so on down the line.

5. VALUE OF BALLOTS—The entry ballot entitles the nominee to 100 votes, each ballot thereafter to count as one vote. Ballots must be in the hands of the Model Mailman Editor not later than the specified date clearly marked on each ballot. Ballots received after expiration date shall be void.

6. Decision of the judges will be final.

7. Employees of the Brooklyn Eagle, members of whose families are Postoffice employees, are not eligible to participate in the voting.

For further information follow the Brooklyn Eagle. Address all communications to the Model Mailman Editor, Box 99, Brooklyn Eagle, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Jr., Bay Shore, and John Edmund Russell, Baldwin.

John Edmund Russell of Baldwin receives appointment to the Coast Guard Academy ~ July, 1940

Clipped By:

kehbe

Wed, Dec 30, 2015