tainly must have kept them in his foot locker.

Missing are all of the souvenirs he had written he had for us. All Xmas gifts that were sent to him by us & other members of the family.

For sentimental reasons I am especially desirous of obtaining two articles. My son had an Expensive Toilet Case (Brown Leather) with his initials A. E. W on the outside. Also a small Brown Leather bag with a zipper three quarters of the way around.

I would appreciate it if you would tell me what you can of what happened to his belongings.

Dear Sir-

Relative to your recent inquiry regarding burial of my son, before I make my decision I would like to know the following:-

Much has been written in the papers, regarding the quality, etc of the caskets our sons are being returned in. Was not my son buried in one of these caskets?

In other words, it might be necessary for me to have him returned here in order that he be Given a decent burial such as is his due. Will you please let me know about this.

Furthermore, my husband, Andrew
A., died suddenly last March.
His death certificate is on file with the Veterans Admin. Will it be necessary for me to return another certificate with the papers.

Thanking you, I am

Dear Mrs. Dorsett:

President Johnson has asked that I reply to your recent letter regarding your desire to have the remains of your son, the late First Lieutenant A. Earl Dorsett, returned from an oversea cemetery for reburial in this country.

Final disposition of the dead of World War II was made under the Act of 5 August 1947, 61 Stat. 779, which terminated on 31 December 1951. Under this authority the remains of those American military decedents whose next of kin desired their burial overseas were permanently interred in accordance with the expressed wishes. Subsequently all of the permanent cemeteries established on foreign soil after World War II were transferred to the jurisdiction of the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington, D. C. 20360, for beautification and maintenance as permanent memorials to the dead of that war.

After remains have been interred in a permanent American Cemetery and Memorial as requested by the next of kin, the Department of the Army has no further authority in the matter; and the Commission does not permit disinterments from the oversea cemeteries even at private expense.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Jordan, III
Special Assistant (Civil Functions)

Dear Mrs. Dorsett:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

H. FELDMAN

Mrs. Grace A. Dorsett
206 Glover Street

Dear Mrs. Dorsett:

Your letter pertaining to the remains of your son, the late First Lieutenant Adelbert E. Dorsett, has come to my attention.

I am sure you will understand that it was not possible to inter our deceased military personnel in caskets during the stress of combat in the area in which your son died. However, his remains were placed in a blanket or canvas shroud prior to burial. This method was used in World War I for our heroic dead and was found to be much more satisfactory than when temporary caskets were used.

The casket in which the remains of your son will be placed for final burial will be of standard size and in every way comparable to the best accepted standards of the Funeral Directors' profession.

When the remains of your son are disinterred and prepared for final burial, they will be placed in the casket in the proper manner by experienced personnel. The casket is then hermetically sealed and placed in a protective wooden case for shipment, under military escort, to that cemetery designated by the next of kin for final burial.

I can assure you that the casket will be most appropriate for our honored dead.

Kindly complete the "Request for Disposition of Remains" form, stating in the "Remarks" column that your husband is deceased, and return the form to this office in order that official action may be taken to comply with your desires.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Bennett:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the battle dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Sincerely,

THOMAS B. LARKIN
