FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY SECOND BOMBARDMENT GROUP (H)
ARMY AIR FORCES
GROUP S-2
HISTORICAL SECTION

SUBJECT: 452nd Bombardment Group (H) History, June 1, 1943 - August 20, 1943

The Army Air Forces of the United States added another great B-17 unit to its roster when it activated the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) on June 1, 1943 at Geiger Field, Washington. According to the Group's Table of Organization strength, the Group was to have 25% of its total strength by July 1, 1943; 50% of its total strength by August 1, 1943, and full strength by August 25, 1943.

The formation of the Group Cadre took place at the Salt Lake City Army Air Base, 18th Replacement Wing, Salt Lake City, Utah, where the Group remained for a period of time, then departed for the Ephrata Army Air Base, Ephrata, Washington. In transit, the Group did not have a Commissioned Officer in charge, but an enlisted man, acting Sergeant Major, Leo W. Boyd. This group of men travelled to Ephrata, Washington, for a stay of approximately one week, then proceeded to Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota, for their personnel formation and basic training. During these few weeks, while travelling under the supervision of non-commissioned officers, there was not one case of A.W.O.L., not one man was late for appointed movements, and every man displayed the highest degree of good conduct befitting a soldier and a gentleman.

On June 13, 1943, the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) started to grow from strength to strength when 192 enlisted men, the Cadre, reported for duty at Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota.

On that same day, dynamic Major Horace C. Oliver, whose Army background goes back 37 years, assumed the position of temporary Group Commanding Officer. Assigned to work with him were: Major Raymond M. Schuler who assumed the duty of Group Executive Officer; 1st Lt. Woodrow W. Bogle who assumed the duty of Group Transportation Officer; 1st Lt. Ralph S. Hayes who was assigned the duty of Squadron Commanding Officer; and Major Arthur C. Andersen who started the necessary work as Group Adjutant.

Immediately, the Group was divided into its four squadrons, the 728th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 729th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 730th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H), and the men were assigned to their respective organizations.

Time is an important weapon in this war, and without wasting any of it, the Group immediately proceeded to participate in the "Training for War and Victory" program at Camp Rapid.

The objective of the first sixty days at Camp Rapid was to give all personnel a Refresher Course in Basic Military Training and the objective of the last thirty days at the Camp was to give all the specialists a Refresher Course in their respective specialties.

This was a huge and difficult program. It included lectures and practical demonstrations in Drill, Retreat, Guard Mount, Physical Training, Military Courtesy, Sex Morality, Care of Clothing, Safeguarding Military Information, Administration, Ordnance, Camouflage, Airdrome Defense and Post Defense, Protection of Aircraft of the Ground, Interior Guard, Shelter Tent Pitching, Bayonet Drill, Hand Grenade Throwing, Military Hygiene, Sanitation, First Aid, concentrated courses on Chemical Warfare, and preliminary rifle marksmanship and rifle marksmanship.

On June 18, 1943, a new officer was introduced to the enlisted men at one of their noon formations. His words were sincere, direct, and few, but they created in the minds of the men, a feeling of confidence, of unity, of comradeship. This new Commanding Officer, Lt. Colonel Herbert Otto Wangeman, the recipient of the Air Medal, the O.L. Cluster to AM and the O.L. Cluster, an experienced Airman with about 8 months of distinguished service overseas in the United Kingdom, shot the starting gun for increased duty, increased vigilence, and for a greater love for the Organization. Yes, every man there knew he was in experienced hands.

Also introduced were: Captain John M. Howard, recipient of the Air Medal and two Oak Leaf Clusters and the D.F.C. with previous service in Hawaii and England; 1st Lt. Lewis P. Johnson, Jr., recipient of the Silver Star, D.F.C., the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, with previous meritorious service in England; 1st Lt. Ralph S. Hayes, Jr., recipient of the Air Medal, and the Oak Leaf Cluster, with previous outstanding service in the United Kingdom; and finally, 1st Lt. George J. Comider, recipient of the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the American D.F.C. and the British D.F.C., with conspicuous service in the European Theatre stationed in England.

These men were to be the leaders. They were experienced; they were outstanding. A feeling of increased pride and determination was evident.

On June 28, 1943, the Group Combat Intelligence Officer, Major Richard Hume was transfered from the 395th Bombardment Group (H) to the 452nd Bombardment Group (H). Five intelligence officers were assigned to the Group on the same day.

Weapon training was the most important of all the courses taken at Camp Rapid. Dry range instruction was given to every man, and actual firing on the range was given to every man, within existing limitations.

On Jly 9, 1943, Major Oliver was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) during the temporary absence of Lt. Colonel Wangeman. Major Kaufman was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 728th Bombardment Squadron (H), Major Jewett was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 729th Bombardment Squadron (H), Captain Joseph assumed the duties of acting Commanding Officer of the 730th Bombardment Squadron (H), and 2nd Lt. Bornemann took over the steering wheel of the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H). The organization was growing stronger and firmer.

The memorable day of July 9, 1943 witnessed the start of the schooling and the training of the flying officers and enlisted men at the Army Air Force School of Applied Tactics at Orlando, Florida. Here, they went to work at the world's greatest Air Force tactical school after Brig. General Hume S. Peabody bid the men welcome. Until July 21, 1943, valuable information and knowledge were transmitted to the officers and enlisted men during a series of lectures from men well skilled in foreign service experience.

Simulated combat conditions were created for the air echelon on July 21, 1943, when they flew down to an airfield at Brooksfield, Florida and commenced the tactical school's flying schedule.

A familiarization flight was the "Order of the Day" on July 22, 1943. A six plane formation threw shadows on the ground the next day when the first mission flew to Wilmington, North Carolina. It was a good trip with a dash of excitement thrown in. One plane, piloted by Captain Bilger, was forced to make an emergency landing at Shaw Field, South Carolina. But like the Marines, the crew " had the situation well in hand."

For the next few days, missions were made to Baton Rouge, La., New Orleans, La., and Charleston, S.C.

On July 27, 1943, the 452nd flew out on the Gulf of Mexico, then to Mobile, Alabama, and back. The next day, the air fleet flew to the Pinecastle Air Base where several high ranking Army and Navy officials were given a "buggy ride" in the B 17's.

A small island off the Gulf of Mexico was the object of July 29's mission. This was a long over-water trip, 1200 miles in distance. This mission concluded the flying schedule in Florida. The Commanding Officer's leadership on the ground and in the air, the intelligence sections presenting simulated enemy situations, and the operation's sections work had clinched the key flying echelons confidence and built the basis of a real "Esprit de Corps."

The ten days were completed and lessons had been learned. Only 240 hours had passed since the men left Orlando, Florida, but it was the most important period in the flying echelon's training. "They proved themselves to one another."

Back at Camp Rapid, on July 15, 1943, a Special Courts-Martial was appointed. On the roster were: Major Jewett, Major Kaufman, Lt. Pyles, Lt. Roach, Lt. Cagan, Captain Henry, Lt. Chilcoat, Lt. Daily, and Lt. Borneman, and Captain Bertram C. Joseph was appointed Summary Courts-Martial. Captain James A. Forrest was also appointed Summary Courts-Martial the next day.

Captain Challack attained the honor of being the first Commissioned Officer to be granted a three day leave on July 30. And on the next day, July 31, 1943, all men on detached service at Brooksfield Airfield flew to Orlando, Florida and then came by train to Camp Rapid. The flying crews flew to Camp Rapid by way of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. All were returning to the fold, and on August 4, 1943 they were together with their ground echelon at Camp Rapid.

The specialist's Refresher Courses were immediately started in fuel systems, engines, propellers, superchargers, Hydralics, Oxygen, Heating, Electrical systems, Bomb racks, Instruments, Inspections, Armament, Turrets, Communications, Compass, Radio Procedure, etc.

We took to the air again on August 16, 1943, and did a little local flying over Rapid City, the gateway to the Black Hills. Daily flights followed.

The Rifle and Pistol took its proper place and on August 17, 1943, 42 officers and 575 enlisted men fired the course for qualification in Arms with the Rifle Ca. .30, Model 1903. Of this number, 31 officers and 429 enlisted men qualified for a percentage of: Officers - 73 percent; Enlisted Men - 74 percent. The percentage to total strength was: Officers - 38 percent; Enlisted Men - 60 percent. There were 40 Officers who fired the course for qualification in Arms with the Pistol Cal. .45, of which 28 qualified for a percentage of 70 percent. The percentage to total strength was 35 percent.

Drill and athletics began to show their desirable effects on the Group. From an apparently new appearing Group on the drill field at the start of the program, the 452nd Bombardment Group on August 2o, 1943, passed in review with the appearance of veterans on parade.

A letter of commendation was sent to the Commanding Officer of the Ninth Bombardment Group at Orlando, Florida, from Lt. Colonel Wangeman, Commanding Officer of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H), on August 19, 1943. The text of the splendid commendation follows:

> "1. It is desired to commend the 1st Bombardment Squadron at Brooksville for the efficient and courteous performance of duties during this Group's tour of duty there the last two weeks in July.
> "2. The Commanding Officer, Major McKay, the S-2 Officer, Lt. Buscher, the Operation's Officer, Lt. Weir, and the Engineering Officer, Lt. Hensinger were outstanding in their efforts to cooperate with the group and offered ready and willing assistance when needed.
> "3. It was a pleasure to have worked with the officers and enlisted men of the 1st Bombardment Squadron and the personnel of the Group express their gratitude for the many considerations extended them."

Local daily flying and ground school for all personnel was the program up until August 20, 1943. This constant training was developing skilled men.

A fine Group was in the making.

The morale of the Group during this period of their stay at Camp Rapid was good. There were no hardships imposed upon the men, no deprivations, no needless demands. The Officers regarded the men with complete respect, and the men returned it with more. Food was excellent. Passes were plentiful. In return for this humane consideration, the men attained a morale level that has carried the efficiency of the Group to an exceptionally high plane. Of course, there were some small minor injustices, but every attempt was made to correct them, as far as possible.

The establishment and maintenance of good morale are the signs of a good leader. Good morale is a sign of a good Group.

HEADQUARTERS 17TH BOMBARDMENT OPERATIONAL TRAINING WING WEL/lp
GROUP CADRE TRAINING WING
Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota

July 29, 1943.

MEMORANDUM:

To : All Concerned.

1. Attached hereto as Inclosure #1, is Specialized Training Schedule for 452nd Group for week ending August 7, 1943.

a. Facilities for Specialized Training will be available for four weeks. It is contemplated to operate two classes of two weeks duration each during the four weeks for personnel covered by items 4, 5 and 7.

(1) During the period August 2-14, inclusive, personnel present on July 31, 1943, and included in items 4, 5 and 7 on attached schedule will receive Specialized Training. During the period August 16-28, inclusive, personnel in these categories who because of later arrival or for any other reason were not trained in first two weeks will receive Specialized Training. Rosters will be so arranged that members of these classes can take the two weeks course without interruption for Squadron or other outside duties. Medical and Dental matters will be scheduled for times other than Specialized Training hours, as far as members of these classes are concerned. Every effort will be made to hold absences to a minimum.

(2) Program for personnel other than those covered by items 4, 5 and 7, will contemplate a course of four weeks duration.

2. Schedules for Squadrons E and F, 457th Group, are attached as Inclosures #2 and #3, respectively.

3. All men not otherwise scheduled above will be divided equally into Flights A and B, with following schedules:

MEMORANDUM:

To : All Concerned.

1. Attached hereto are schedules for week ending August 21, 1943, for 452nd Group, as follows:

a. Specialized Training.

(1) As Inclosure #1, Specialized Training Schedule for first week, second term, applicable to Specialists not previously trained covered in Items 4, 5, and 7. Rosters in Squadrons will be so arranged that members of these classes can take the two weeks course without interruption for Squadron or other outside duties. Medical and Dental matters will be scheduled outside Specialized Training hours for men in Specialties covered by Items 4, 5, and 7.

(2) Inclosure #1 is also applicable to Specialists covered by items other than 4, 5, and 7, as the third week of Specialized Training. See Par. 1, a, (2) of Memorandum from this Headquarters, dated July 29, 1943, transmitting schedules for week ending August 7th.

(3) Specialists who have completed Specialized Training will be used for overhead. Any available in excess of overhead requirements will be fired on range, if not already qualified; or will be sent to any applicable training activities.

b. As Inclosure #2, Basic Training Schedule for new men whose attendance at Specialized Training is not indicated.

c. Inclosure #2 will apply, until firing is completed, to Specialists due for Specialized Training, who have not qualified with rifle. Specialists will then be sent to classes scheduled in Inclosure #1.

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd, 453rd and 454th Heavy Bombardment Groups were ordered to attack and destroy the dock and warehouse area at Wilmington. (Target No. 14 as shown in Target Folder of Wilmington.) At 1200 Z all groups were to assemble at 7,000 feet over Clermont. In a stepped down javelin formation they were to proceed to Mayo by way of Leesburg and Cross City. At Mayo the formation was to break down into individual groups for the run to Wilmington.

The 453rd and 454th Groups (B-24's) were to attack the harbor installations at 1450 Z and 1455 Z respectively with six airplanes each. The 452nd Group (B-17's) was to attack at 1500 Z with six Airplanes. The simulated bombing runs were to be scored by photographs.

Each plane was to carry 2 M38 practice bombs and not more than 50 rounds of ammunition per gun. The B-17 Group was to use the Ocala Range (North Range) and make one pass releasing the two bombs per plane on the element leader. The B-24 Groups were to bomb the South Cedar Keys Bombing Range using the same tactics. After the bombing all guns were to be fired at the 9th Group Gunnery Range.

Intelligence indicated that safest approach could be made at an altitude above 20,000 feet and from the North.

452nd Bombardment Group

Six aircraft of this organization took off from Brooksville Air Base between 1130 Z and 1133 Z, six planes in 3 minutes. No rendezvous with the other Groups were made at Clermont. The rendezvous was scheduled for 1200 Z at 7,000 feet. An hour later this group saw 3 B-24's over Mayo where the formation was to split up into individual Groups. The six aircraft reached Wilmington at 1543 Z. One plane made an emergency landing at Shaw Field, S. C. The other five landed at their home base between 1349 Z and 1355 Z.

ROUTE OUT:

Brooksville to Clermont, 7,000 feet.
Clermont to Leesburg to Cross City to Mayo, 7,000 feet to 11,000 feet.
30 deg-22 min N; 81 deg 58 min W, started climb to 21,000 feet from 34 deg-14 min N; 80 deg-00 min W to Target.

SIMULATED TARGET:

All aircraft made the simulated attack at 1543 Z to 1545Z at 21,000 feet on a heading of 90 degrees. Due to bad weather the course was altered and the target was reached late. Photographs of the target were taken.

ENEMY AIR OPPOSITION:

Two P-51's attacked at 1656 Z while the planes were landing at Brooksville, two passes were made headon from 12 o'clock. Gunners claim they could have destroyed the fighters.

ROUTE BACK:

Wilmington to 33 deg-51 min N; 77 deg-55 min W at 19,000 feet direct route to landfall at 31 deg-00 min N; 81 deg-25 min W at 12,500 feet to Cedar Keys Gunnery Range to Brooksville at 1,000 feet.

BOMBING AT RANGE:

Due to weather conditions and inability to see the targets at either the gunnery or bombing range, no bombs were released or guns fired except the one aircraft fired 500 rounds at the gunnery range with accurate results.

OBSERVATIONS:

A- Shipping - Several merchant vessels were sighted in the vicinity of Charleston about 1630 Z from 10,000 feet. Eight to ten merchant vessels were sighted in the Wilmington Harbor area at 1543 Z from 21,000 feet.

B- Air - A U.S. Naval Blimp at 32 deg-00 min N; 80 deg-30 min W at 1700 Z alt 500 feet. 25 PT's flying at 500 to 5,000 feet over Orangeburg, S. C. 3 B-24's over Mayo at 1310 Z at 7,000 feet.

Plan of Mission

The 452nd, 453rd and 454th Heavy Bombardment Groupswere ordered to attack. "Scharndorf Synthetic Oil Works" located on the northwest outskirts of "Belin". (Target No. 3 on photograph of Baton Rouge Refinery and Tank Farm).

The 454th Group was ordered to make the simualted attack at 1650 Z, the 453rd at 1700 Z and the 452nd at 1710 Z. Attack was to be scored by photographs.

Each gun, loaded with 50 rounds of ammunition, was to be fired over water enroute to the simulated target. Returning, each plane, loaded with two M38 bombs, was to release them on the Cedar Keys North Water Target. Thereafter all planes were to return to their bases and land.

Intelligence indicated that the target was heavily camouflaged and smoke pots have been reported effective. A dummy is located two miles directly north. Storage tanks cover a large area down to the docks on the river. The power station, refinery, and administration building are located east of the tank farm.

SIMULATED TARGET:

All aircraft made the attack at 1614 Z to 1619 Z at altitudes of 20,000 to 21,000 feet on a heading of 350 deg. Weather over target was excellent and enabled a good run. Photographs of the attack were taken.

ENEMY AIR OPPOSITION:

None.

ROUTE BACK:

Target at Baton Rouge to 28 deg-00 min N; 87 deg-00 min W, 21000 feet to Cedar Keys Bombing Range, 21,000 feet let down to 1,000 feet to Brooksville and landing.

BOMBING AT RANGE:

Five aircraft attacked at 2005 Z at an altitude of 10,000 feet on a heading of 270 degrees. Each plane released two practice bombs. Results of bombing were poor due to lead bombardier failing to adjust selector on bomb bay door and due to lack of target information for brifing on specific target to be bombed. One plane made a dry run because of bomb rack malfunctions. Weather over Range was reported to be bad with scattered clouds.

OBSERVATIONS:

A-Shipping - Ten ships at docks in New Orleans were sighted at 1712 Z from 20,000 feet. Several small vessels at 28 deg-17min N; 83 deg-20 Min W at 1430 Z at 2,000 feet.

B-Air - None.

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd, 453rd and 454th were ordered to attack the wharves at New Orleans where large enemy supplies are being landed. The 453rd and 454th Groups were to rendezvous with the 452nd Group over Apalachicola at 1655 Z in a stepped down javelin formation at 10,000 feet after the simulated attack. The formation was to be maintained until arriving at the South Cedar Keys Bombing Range where they were to break up and bomb in individual groups. Thereafter they were to return to their their bases and land.

The 452nd Group was to make a simulated attack on the wharves at 1500 Z, The 453rd at 1505 Z andthe the 454th at 1510 Z.

The groups were to load two M38 practice bombs per plane which would be released at the Bombing Range on return from simulated target. Fifty rounds of ammunition per gun were to be fired over enroute to New Orleans.

Intelligence indicated that the wharf area was heavily defended on all approaches. Enemy N aval forces control waterways leading to New Orleans and the waters of the Gulf in the area around the mouth of the Mississippi River. A balloon barrage was reported up to an altitude of 6,000 feet at the southeast end of the city from the South and West banks of the river. Light AA installations lie on both banks around the wharf area. Heavy AA rings the city 5 miles from center on the South and East.

SIMULATED TARGET:

All aircraft made the simulated attack at 1500 Z at an altitude of 21,000 feet on a heading og 180 degrees. The approach was from the Nort, defenses being light in that sector.

ENEMY AIR OPPOSITION:

One P-47 attacked at 1346 Z over Mobile Bay at 20,000 feet making two level passes from 3 o'clock, One P-39 attacked at 1347 Z over Pensacola at 17,000 feet making one pass from 3 o'clock. Evasive action taken by this group was to tighten formation.

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd, 453rd and 454th Heavy Bombardment Groups were ordered to attack the docks and repair shops at Charleston, S. C. (Target No. 1 on Photograph V-50 of Charleston).

The 452nd Group was to take off at 1100 Z and fly a course of 45 degrees, Navigators were to work R/A to assemble the group at 1140 Z at 33 deg 01 min N; 79 deg 21 min W and then proceed to Charleston.

The 453rd Group was to take off from their base at 1130 Z and fly a course of 40 degrees. Navigators were to work R/A to assemble the group at 1450 Z at 33 deg 01 min N; 79 deg 21 min W and proceed to target.

The 454th Group was to take off at 1100 Z and flay a course of 35 degrees. Navigators were to work R/A to assemble the group at 1500 Z at 33 deg 01 min N; 79 deg 21 min W and proceed to target.

The groups were to load two M38 practice bombs per plane to be released at the South Cedar Keys Bombing Range. Simulated bombing was to be scored by photographs.

Rendezvous was to be made over Daytona Beach at 10,000 feet at 1700 Z in a stepped down Javelin formation. Formation was to be maintained until reaching the Bombing Range where they were to break into individual groups for practice bombing.

Intelligence indicated strong defenses with AA accurate at 20,000 feet, a balloon barrage effective at 12,000 feet directly over target and the greatest defensive strength at the south end of the city.

A teletype message filed at 2027 Z cancelled the mission for the 453rd and 454th Group.

The 452nd was to continue mission as planned.

SIMULATED TARGET:

All six aircraft made the simulated run at 1700 Z at an altitude of 21,000 feet but were unable to sight target because of bad weather with base down to 1,000 feet.

ENEMY AIR OPPOSITION:

The formation was attacked by 14 P-47's and 6 P-51's over Cedar Keys at 1808 Z. Passes were made from above at 10 and 1 o'clock.

ROUTE BACK:

From target on course at 10,000 feet to Dayton Beach losing altitude proceed at 2,000 feet to Cedar Keys, thence climbing to 10,000 proceed to base, and land.

BOMBING AT RANGE:

All aircraft made the bombing attack at 1808 Z from an altitude of 10,000 feet on a heading of 160 degrees. Bombing results were poor.

CONVOY AND MOBILE, ALA.
Pre-40 -- 452nd Gp (H)

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452n Heavy Bombardment Group was ordered to attack an enemy convoy (Primary Target) last reported at 28 deg-18 min N; 88 deg-15 min W on a course of 95 degrees at 12 knots. After attacking the convoy they were to proceed to Mobile (Secondary Target) to attack and destroy the docks there (Target No. 2 on Mobile photograph No. V-36).

They were ordered to attack the enemy convoy at 2100 Z and the target at Mobile as soon as possible thereafter. The convoy was to be a B-17 acting as a reconnaissance plane which would release slick when contacted by lead plane.

After simulated attack the formation was to break up and each plane return to Brooksville to fly through Searchlight arriving in the following manner; one plane on course 1 at 0100 Z at 10,000 feet, one plane on course 2 at 12, 000 feet at 0100 Z, one plane on course 3 at 14,000 feet at 0100 Z. One plane on course 1 at 11,000 feet at 0105 Z, one plane on course 2 at 13,000 feet at 0105, one plane on course 3 at 15,000 feet at 0105 Z. Upon completing a run from West to East to 31 deg-33 min W longitude, they were to lose 3,000 feet of altitude and return on their assigned course to their respective initial points for another run through the lights. Navigation lights were to be turned off while in searchlight area. Each plane was to make two runs through the lights at the altitude specified.

Planes were to carr y 2-X38 bombs and all guns were to be fired over water enroute to convoy or Mobile.

SIMULATED TARGET:

Primary: A;; A/C attacked the enemy convly at 2121 Z/ . 3 planes attack at 3,500 feet and 3 4,500 feet on a heading of 110 degr ees. Results of bombing were fair, target easily seen due to low altitude and good weather conditions.

Secondary: Mobile target was not attacked due to heavy weather around target.

ENEMY AIR OPPOSITIO :

None.

ROUTE BACK:

Each plane proceeded from Valpariso on a different route to Brooksville to fly through searchlight area.

OBSERVATIONS:

A-Shipping - A 31 ship convoy at 28 deg-10 min N; 80 deg-00 min W on course of 190 deg at 2050 Z. Convoy was in formation of 5 columns of 6 ships each with one destrouer trailing formation. Outside of columns had naval protection.

B-Air - None.

C- Other- None .

SEARCHLIGHT:

Two A/C entered searchlight area at 0105 Z to 0120 Z between 28 deg-18 min N; 81 deg-53 min W at altitude of 8,000 feet to 15,000 feet. 6 to 8 searchlights concentrated on one plane for 90 seconds. Lights were very ineffective due to heavy cloud conditions. Bad weather caused the other 4 A/C to land at Brooksville without making searchlight run.

PHOTOGRAPHS:

Photographs of theslick representing the convoy were taken, but as yet film had not been received.

CREW INJURIES:

Radio gunner of lead ship ill, stomack disorder.

MECHANICAL DIFFICULTIES:

A/C No. 117 - Charging handle right waist gun broken.

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd Heavy Bombardment Group was ordered to carry out a simulated attack at 1800 Z on Desterrado Island (22 deg-33 min N; 89 deg-47½ min W) being used by the enemy for submarine repair and refuelling depot.

After simulated attack they were to proceed 30 miles to the north where the lead ship would drop a slick. One run was to be made over the slick, and each plane was to release two M38 practice bombs.

Upon completion of bombing run, all planes were to return to Brooksville and land.

452nd Bombardment Group

Fourteen B-17s of this organization took off from Brooksville Air Base between 1400 and 1406 Z. A formation accident en route caused two aircraft to return to base befor reaching position of simulated target.

ROUTE OUT:

Brooksville to 22 deg-33 min N; 89 deg-48 min W at 2,000 feet. (altitude reported, but doubtful).

SIMULATED TARGET:

TARGET NOT LOCATED due to bad navigation in lead ship.

ENEMY AIR OPPOSITION:

2 P-39s attacked at 1420 Z at 28 deg-30 min N; 83 deg-00 min W at 1,500 feet from 1 o'clock below.

ROUTE BACK:

Target to 27 deg-33 min N; 83 deg-42 min W (slick bombing) to St. Petersburg to Brooksville.

BOMBING:

Eight aircraft bombed the slick at 1825 Z from an altitude of 4,000 feet on a heading of 150 degrees. The other six planes did not release bombs because they were instructed to release bombs on lead ship. The lead ship failed to definitely identify target.

OBSERVATIONS:

A-Shipping - Considerable shipping of all sizes was observed over Gulf enroute to and from targets.

B-Air - Four P-47s at 28 deg-35 min N; 82 deg-55 min W at 1,5000 feet at 1400 Z. 2 A-24s at 29 deg-2 minN; 32 deg-57 min W at 1410 Z.

C-Other - None.

ACCIDENT INFORMATION:

At 1818 Z, altitude 10,000 feet, position 28 deg-35 min N; 90 deg-00 min W, A/C 626, No. 6 in formation, was too close to lead ship of second element. He was caught in prop-wash of forward ship. Right wing dropped and caused plane to skid to right and down on ship No. 296 - which gave left aileron and rudder to avoid collision. Vertical stabilizer hit tail gun position of A/C No. 626 damaging same. The vertical stabilizer and rudder of No. 296 was also damaged, but both A/E returned safely to base.

PHOTOGRAPHS:

None were taken.

CREW INJURIES:

Tail gunner in A/C 626 received bruise on head in collision.

MECHANICAL DIFFICULTIES:

117 - Malfunction of drift meter.
987 - Bomb release fuse blown.
259 - No. 2 supercharger would not function.

FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY SECOND BOMBARDMENT GROUP (H)
ARMY AIR FORCES
GROUP S-2
HISTORICAL SECTION

SUBJECT: 452nd Bombardment Group (H) History, June 1, 1943 - August 20, 1943

The Army Air Forces of the United States added another great B-17 unit to its roster when it activated the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) on June 1, 1943 at Geiger Field, Washington. According to the Group's Table of Organization strength, the Group was to have 25% of its total strength by July 1, 1943; 50% of its total strength by August 1, 1943, and full strength by August 25, 1943.

The formation of the Group Cadre took place at the Salt Lake City Army Air Base, 19th Replacement Wing, Salt Lake City, Utah, where the Group remained for a period of time, then departed for the Ephrata Army Air Base, Ephrata, Washington. In transit, the Group did not have a Commissioned Officer in charge, but an enlisted man, acting Sergeant Major, Lee W. Boyd. This group of men travelled to Ephrata, Washington, for a stay of approximately one week, then proceeded to Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota, for their personnel formation and basic training. During these few weeks, while travelling under the supervision of non-commissioned officers, there was not one case of A.W.O.L., not one man was late for appointed movements, and every man displayed the highest degree of good conduct befitting a soldier and a gentleman.

On June 13, 1943, the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) started to grow from strength to strength when 192 enlisted men, the Cadre, reported for duty at Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota.

On that same day, dynamic Major Horace C. Oliver, whose Army background goes back 37 years, assumed the position of temporary Group Commanding Officer. Assigned to work with him were: Major Raymond M. Schuler who assumed the duty of Group Executive Officer; 1st Lt. Woodrow W. Begle who assumed the duty of Group Transportation Officer; 1st Lt. Ralph S. Hayes who was assigned the duty of Squadron Commanding Officer; and Major Arthur C. Anderson who started the necessary work as Group Adjutant.

Immediately, the Group was divided into its four squadrons, the 728th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 729th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 730th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H), and the men were assigned to their respective organizations.

Time is an important weapon in this war, and without wasting any of it, the Group immediately proceeded to participate in the "Training for War and Victory" program at Camp Rapid.

The objective of the first sixty days at Camp Rapid was to give all personnel a Refresher Course in Basic Military Training and the objective of the last thirty days at the Camp was to give all the specialists a Refresher Course in their respective specialties.

This was a huge and difficult program. It included lectures and practical demonstrations in Drill, Retreat, Guard Mount, Physical Training, Military Courtesy, Sex Morality, Care of Clothing, Safeguarding Military Information, Administration, Ordnance, Camouflage, Airdrome Defense and Post Defense, Protection of Aircraft of the Ground, Interior Guard, Shelter Tent Pitching, Bayonet Drill, Hand Grenade Throwing, Military Hygiene, Sanitation, First Aid, concentrated courses on Chemical Warfare, and preliminary rifle marksmanship and rifle marksmanship.

On June 18, 1943, a new officer was introduced to the enlisted men at one of their noon formations. His words were sincere, direct, and few, but they created in the minds of the men, a feeling of confidence, of unity, of comradeship. This new Commanding Officer, Lt. Colonel Herbert Otto Wangeman, the recipient of the Air Medal, the O.L. Cluster to AM and the O.L. Cluster, an experienced Airman with about 8 months of distinguished service overseas in the United Kingdom, shot the starting gun for increased duty, increased vigilence, and for a greater love for the Organization. Yes, every man there knew he was in experienced hands.

Also introduced were: Captain John M. Howard, recipient of the Air Medal and two Oak Leaf Clusters and the D.F.C. with previous service in Hawaii and England; 1st Lt. Lewis P. Johnson, Jr., recipient of the Silver Star, D.F.C., the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, with previous meritorious service in England; 1st Lt. Ralph S. Hayes, Jr., recipient of the Air Medal, and the Oak Leaf Cluster, with previous outstanding service in the United Kingdom; and finally, 1st Lt. George J. Comrider, recipient of the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the American D.F.C. and the British D.F.C., with conspicuous service in the European Theatre stationed in England.

These men were to be the leaders. They were experienced; they were outstanding. A feeling of increased pride and determination was evident.

On June 28, 1943, the Group Combat Intelligence Officer, Major Richard Hume was transfered from the 395th Bombardment Group (H) to the 452nd Bombardment Group (H). Five intelligence officers were assigned to the Group on the same day.

Weapon training was the most important of all the courses taken at Camp Rapid. Dry range instruction was given to every man, and actual firing on the range was given to every man, within existing limitations.

On Jly 9, 1943, Major Oliver was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) during the temporary absense of Lt. Colonel Wangeman. Major Kaufman was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 728th Bombardment Squadron (H), Major Jewett was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 729th Bombardment Squadron (H), Captain Joseph assumed the duties of acting Commanding Officer of the 730th Bombardment Squadron (H), and 2nd Lt. Borneman took over the steering wheel of the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H). The organization was growing stronger and firmer.

to Orlando, Florida and then came by train to Camp Rapid. The flying crews flew to Camp Rapid by way of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. All were returning to the fold, and on August 4, 1943 they were together with their ground echelon at Camp Rapid.

The specialist's Refresher Courses were immediately started in fuel systems, engines, propellers, superchargers, Hydralics, Oxygen, Heating, Electrical systems, Bomb racks, Instruments, Inspections, Armament, Turrets, Communications, Compass, Radio Procedure, etc.

We took to the air again on August 16, 1943, and did a little local flying over Rapid City, the gateway to the Black Hills. Daily flights followed.

The Rifle and Pistol took its proper place and on August 17, 1943, 42 officers and 575 enlisted men fired the course for qualification in Arms with the Rifle Ca. .30, Model 1903. Of this number, 31 officers and 429 enlisted men qualified for a percentage of: Officers - 73 percent; Enlisted Men - 74 percent. The percentage to total strength was: Officers - 38 percent; Enlisted Men - 60 percent. There were 40 Officers who fired the course for qualification in Arms with the Pistol Cal. .45, of which 28 qualified for a percentage of 70 percent. The percentage to total strength was 35 percent.

Drill and athletics began to show their desirable effects on the Group. From an apparently new appearing Group on the drill field at the start of the program, the 452nd Bombardment Group on August 2o, 1943, passed in review with the appearance of veterans on parade.

A letter of commendation was sent to the Commanding Officer of the Ninth Bombardment Group at Orlando, Florida, from Lt. Colonel Wangeman, Commanding Officer of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H), on August 19, 1943. The text of the splendid commendation follows:

> "1. It is desired to commend the 1st Bombardment Squadron at Brooksville for the efficient and courteous performance of duties during this Group's tour of duty there the last two weeks in July.
> "2. The Commanding Officer, Major McKay, the S-2 Officer, Lt. Buscher, the Operation's Officer, Lt. Weir, and the Engineering Officer, Lt. Hensinger were outstanding in their efforts to cooperate with the group and offered ready and willing assistance when needed.
> "3. It was a pleasure to have worked with the officers and enlisted men of the 1st Bombardment Squadron and the personnel of the Group express their gratitude for the many considerations extended them."

Local daily flying and ground school for all personnel was the program up until August 20, 1943. This constant training was developing skilled men.

The memorable day of July 9, 1943 witnessed the start of the schooling and the training of the flying officers and enlisted men at the Army Air Force School of Applied Tactics at Orlando, Florida. Here, they went to work at the world's greatest Air Force tactical school after Brig. General Hume S. Peabody bid the men welcome. Until July 21, 1943, valuable information and knowledge were transmitted to the officers and enlisted men during a series of lectures from men well skilled in foreign service experience.

Simulated combat conditions were created for the air echelon on July 21, 1943, when they flew down to an airfield at Brooksfield, Florida and commenced the tactical school's flying schedule.

A familiarization flight was the "Order of the Day" on July 22, 1943. A six plane formation threw shadows on the ground the next day when the first mission flew to wilmington, North Carolina. It was a good trip with a dash of excitement thrown in. One plane, piloted by Captain Bilger, was forced to make an emergency landing at Shaw Field, South Carolina. But like the Marines, the crew " had the situation well in hand."

For the next few days, missions were made to Baton Rouge, La., New Orleans, La., and Charleston, S.C.

On July 27, 1943, the 452nd flew out on the Gulf of Mexico, then to Mobile, Alabama, and back. The next day, the air fleet flew to the Pinecastle Air Base where several high ranking Army and Navy officials were given a "buggy ride" in the B 17's.

A small island off the Gulf of Mexico was the object of July 29's mission. This was a long over-water trip, 1200 miles in distance. This mission concluded the flying schedule in Florida. The Commanding Officer's leadership on the ground and in the air, the intelligence sections presenting simulated enemy situations, and the operation's sections work had clinched the key flying echelons confidence and built the basis of a real "Esprit de Corps."

The ten days were completed and lessons had been learned. Only 240 hours had passed since the men left Orlando, Florida, but it was the most important period in the flying echelon's training. "They proved themselves to one another."

Back at Camp Rapid, on July 15, 1943, a Special Courts-Martial was appointed. On the roster were: Major Jewett, Major Kaufman, Lt. Pyles, Lt. Beach, Lt. Cagan, Captain Henry, Lt. Gillespi, Lt. Daily, and Lt. Borneman, and Captain Bertram C. Joseph was appointed Summary Courts-Martial. Captain James A. Forrest was also appointed Summary Courts-Martial the next day.

Captain Chollack attained the honor of being the first Commissioned Officer to be granted a three day leave on July 30. And on the next day, July 31, 1943, all men on detached service at Brooksfield Airfield flew

20 September 1943 To 20 October 1943

On September 20th, 1943, the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) had cast aside its knee-pants and had donned its first pair of long trousers. The Group was no longer a unit that was in the slow process of maturity; it had already matured. The Group's strength for this period was imposing and boasted a complement of 322 Officers and 1,653 Enlisted Men. Newly arrived Enlisted Men participated in the Refresher Course in Basic Military Training at Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota. Those who had completed that training, were at work at the Rapid City Army Air Base, either flying ~~the Flying For-~~ [redacted] or maintaining [redacted] mechanical efficiency OF THE PLANES. [redacted]. The Combat Crews were participating in their Second Phase Overseas Training and were ready to start their Third Phase. The Group had rapidly assumed its obligation as a powerful instrument of Aerial Warfare. It was planning its work and working its plan.

The Refresher Course in Basic Military Training, under the supervision of the Group's Executive Officer, Major Horace G. Oliver, was proving that the Group has assumed its maturity well. Of the various courses, 87% of the Group completed Chemical Warfare Training, 34% completed Camouflage Training, 75% completed First Aid Training, 85% completed the Obstacle Course Training, 79% completed Interior Guard Training, 72% completed Training in Guarding Military Information, 71 % completed Defense against Air Attack and Fox Hole Digging, 83% completed Extended Order Drill, 77% completed lectures on the Organization of the Army and the Army Air Force, 62% completed Lectures and demonstrations on Military Sanitation and Sex Hygiene, 77% completed Map and Air Photo Reading, 77% heard their Articles of War, and 63% watched the films on Military Courtesy. This was a good record, and even up until the completion date of this report, the percentages were rising.

Four hundred and thirty-six Enlisted Men qualified with the Rifle during this period to bring the entire percentage of those who qualified up to the fine total of 80%. The results in Pistol firing for Ground Officers and Air Echelon were 40% qualified. In Carbine firing, 52% qualified. These percentages were still rising at the time of this period's report.

On September 22, 1943, a Special Courts-Martial was appointed. Detail for the Court: Major Horace G. Olinver, Major John J. Jewett, Major Robert E. Kaufman, Captain Robert O. Henry, Lt. Charles L. Daily, Lt. Irwin Math. Trial Judge Advocate: Captain James A. Forrest. Defense Counsel: Captain Roger M. Blissard.

Also on that day, Leave of Absence granted to Lt. Abram J. Cohen.

On September 27, 1943, five Officers were appointed to the Flying Evaluation Board: Lt. Colonel Herbert O. Wangeman, Captain John. M. Howard, Captain Joseph P. Chollak, and as alternates, Major James E. Blount, and Captain Dain E. Wirt. On September 3o, 1943, Major James E. Blount was appointed as Group Air Inspector vice Captain John M. Howard.

October 1st, 1943, was a great day for the Enlisted Men of the Group for not only were 28 Enlisted Men required to make regular and frequent flights, but one hundred and thirty-five received promotions in rank. Also on that day, the 24 Combat Crews of the Group completed their Second Phase Training and were ready to start Third Phase Training. In the short period of time allowed for Second Phase, every one of the Crew Members had completed their required subjects, [redacted]. Most of the 452nd Sections had moved to buildings [redacted] near the line at the Rapid City Air Base and, for the first time, since training had started, [redacted] centralization of all sections, Intelligence, Operations, Engineering, became a reality. On October 3rd, 1943, Lt. William S. Yager was transfered to Geiger Field, Washinton, and Captain Carl E. Eminger reported to the Intelligence Division for duty as Photo Interpreter Officer. The following day, October 4th, 1943, Major Horace G. Oliver was appointed Summary Courts-Martial. On October 11, 1943, Captain Thomas O. Morris was appointed Assistant S-4 and Captain James A. Forrest assumed the additional duty of Group Adjutant upon leave of Major Anderson. Lt. Walter C. Cunningham was appointed Group Engineering Officer.

The 452nd Bombardment Group (H) moved [redacted] from Camp Rapid on October 8th, 1943 to Pendleton Field, Oregon, [redacted]. The four squadrons of the Group each left separately on [redacted] Pullman trains, [redacted] arriving at Pendleton Field [redacted] on the weekend of October 9th and 10th, 1943. Immediately upon arrival, the Group started to put everything in its proper place and to "set up house".

Facilities at Pendleton Field were fairly good. Group and Squadron Operations, Intelligence, Communications, Engineering, Weather, Supply, [redacted] and Armament were [redacted] situated near each other, on the line. All Squadrons had areas of their own, and the proper space for their sections. Under this concentrated set-up, and with the fine facilities available, the Officers and Enlisted Men were ready to start their regular Flying and Ground School Training one day after arrival at Pendleton Field.

On October 15, 1943, 46 Crews were transfered to the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) from the 396th Bombardment Group (H), Moses Lake, Washington and were assigned to their respective Squadrons. At this time, the original 24 Crews of the Group, were completing their Third Phase ground school Training at Pendleton Field, Oregon. The completion dates for all Combat Crew Training are as follows: All Air Crews in the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) are to finish their Second Phase Ground School by November 15, 1943. All Air Crews are to finish their Third Phase Ground School Training by December 1st, 1943. By October 20, 1943, twenty-four crews in the Group completed Third Phase Ground School with the exception of Nava-Trainer time and eight hours of Bomb Theory. All Combat Crews will have been fired on the Pistol Range by or before November 15, 1943.

The B-17's in the possession of the 452nd Bombardment Group were starting to grow in number. When the Group first arrived at Pendleton Field, it had [redacted] eight B-17s. On October 17, 1943, 4 Crews left by Military Aircraft for the Army Air Base, Great Falls, Montana for the purpose of ferrying back two B-17 Airplanes. On October 20, 1943, two more Crews left by Military Aircraft for Geiger Field, Spokane, Washington for the purpose of ferrying one B-17 to Pendleton Field, Oregon. On October 20, 1943, the Group had 11 B-17's on their [redacted] BOARDS.

The 452nd Bombardment Group, for the period of September 20, 1943 to October 20, 1943, enjoyed a period of intensified Combat Flying and Ground School Training. All of its personnel, Air and Ground Echelons, were performing the tasks that they were trained for. The Group had grown considerably and had been able to expand without any serious disruption. The Group was well prepared for the final periods of training that were on hand. [redacted] It had confidence in its men and confidence in its ability. Only bad weather could hold up its schedule.

452D HEAVY BOMBARDMENT GROUP

Elements: 728th, 729th, 730th, and 731st Heavy Bomb Squadrons

Activated: Geiger Field, Washington, 1 June 1943.

Its mission accomplished, the 452nd Bombardment Group of Lieutenant General James H. Doolittle's Eighth Air Force is scheduled to leave for home shortly for a short rest and retraining in anticipation of a new assignment, the War Department announced today. The Group rounded out 250 assaults on vital German military targets when it went out against the marshalling yards of Ingolstadt on April 21, 1945.

From the day of its first mission on February 5, 1944, almost a month after the unit arrived in England on January 10, to its last, the 452nd dropped its explosive cargoes on Ansbach, Munich and Nuremberg, Berlin, Brunswick, Hanover and Leipzig, Merseberg, Weisbaden, Frankfurt, Kassel and Cologne. The organization unloaded an aggregate of more than 16,500 tons, shot down 96, damaged 58 and probably destroyed 45 enemy planes in aerial combat. The 452nd made its first daylight attack on Nazi installations in Berlin on March 3, 1944.

Two shuttle missions from England to Russia and Italy brought the Group over oil refineries at Ruhland, and armament plants in Diosgyor, Hungary. The Group had nine commanding officers during its existance. The present Commanding officer is Colonel Jack E. Shuck, Elm Street, Monroe, Conn. He succeeded Colonel Burnham L. Batson, 80 Burnham Street, Manchester, Conn., who recently received another important assignment.

Previous commanding officers were Lt. Col. Herbert O. Wangeman, 406 Pierre Avenue, Shreveport, La.; Lt. Col. Robert B. Satterwhite, Silver Spring, Fla.; Lt. Col. Marvin F. Stalder, 107 King William Street, San Antonio, Texas; Col. Thetus C. Odum, 202 Evans Street, San Antonio, Texas; Col. Archie Y. Smith, 1548 Liberty Street, Jacksonville, Fla.; Col. William D. Eckert, 14 East Hibble Street, Osborn, Ohio; and Lt. Col. Charles W. Sherburne, R.F.D. 3, San Antonio, Texas.

SUBJECT: 452nd Bombardment Group (H) History, June 1, 1943 - August 20, 1943

The Army Air Forces of the United States added another great B-17 unit to its roster when it activated the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) on June 1, 1943 at Geiger Field, Washington. According to the Group's Table of Organization strength, the Group was to have 25% of its total strength by July 1, 1943; 50% of its total strength by August 1, 1943, and full strength by August 25, 1943.

The formation of the Group Cadre took place at the Salt Lake City Army Air Base, 17th Replacement Wing, Salt Lake City, Utah, where the Group remained for a period of time, then departed for the Ephrata Army Air Base, Ephrata, Washington. In transit, the Group did not have a Commissioned Officer in charge, but an enlisted man, acting Sergeant Major, Leo W. Boyd. This group of men travelled to Ephrata, Washington, for a stay of approximately one week, then proceeded to Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota, for their personnel formation and basic training. During these few weeks, while travelling under the supervision of non-commissioned officers, there was not one case of A.W.O.L., not one man was late for appointed movements, and every man displayed the highest degree of good conduct befitting a soldier and a gentleman.

On June 13, 1943, the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) started to grow from strength to strength when 192 enlisted men, the Cadre, reported for duty at Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota.

On that same day, dynamic Major Horace G. Oliver, whose Army background goes back 37 years, assumed the position of temporary Group Commanding Officer. Assigned to work with him were: Major Raymond M. Schuler who assumed the duty of Group Executive Officer; 1st Lt. Woodrow W. Bogie who assumed the duty of Group Transportation Officer; 1st Lt. Ralph S. Hayes who was assigned the duty of Squadron Commanding Officer; and Major Arthur C. Anderson who started the necessary work as Group Adjutant.

Immediately, the Group was divided into its four squadrons, the 728th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 729th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 730th Bombardment Squadron (H), the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H), and the men were assigned to their respective organizations.

Time is an important weapon in this war, and without wasting any of it, the Group immediately proceeded to participate in the "Training for War and Victory" program at Camp Rapid.

The objective of the first sixty days at Camp Rapid was to give all personnel a Refresher Course in Basic Military Training and the objective of the last thirty days at the Camp was to give all the specialists a Refresher Course in their respective specialties.

This was a huge and difficult program. It included lectures and practical demonstrations in Drill, Retreat, Guard Mount, Physical Training, Military Courtesy, Sex Morality, Care of Clothing, Safeguarding Military Information, Administration, Ordnance, Camouflage, Airdrome Defense and Post Defense, Protection of Aircraft of the Ground, Interior Guard, Shelter Tent Pitching, Bayonet Drill, Hand Grenade Throwing, Military Hygiene, Sanitation, First Aid, concentrated courses on Chemical Warfare, and preliminary rifle marksmanship and rifle marksmanship.

On June 18, 1943, a new officer was introduced to the enlisted men at one of their noon formations. His words were sincere, direct, and few, but they created in the minds of the men, a feeling of confidence, of unity, of comradship. This new Commanding Officer, Lt. Colonel Herbert Otto Wangeman, the recipient of the Air Medal, the O.L. Cluster to AM and the O.L. Cluster, an experienced Airman with about 8 months of distinguished service overseas in the United Kingdom, shot the starting gun for increased duty, increased vigilence, and for a greater love for the Organization. Yes, every man there knew he was in experienced hands.

Also introduced were: Captain John M. Howard, recipient of the Air Medal and two Oak Leaf Clusters and the D.F.C. with previous service in Hawaii and England; 1st Lt. Lewis P. Johnson, Jr., recipient of the Silver Star, D.F.C., the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, with previous meritorious service in England; 1st Lt. Ralph S. Hayes, Jr. recipient of the Air Medal, and the Oak Leaf Cluster, with previous outstanding service in the United Kingdom; and finally, 1st Lt. George J. Oxrider, recipient of the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the American D.F.C. and the British D.F.C., with conspicuous service in the European Theatre stationed in England.

These men were to be the leaders. They were experienced; they were outstanding. A feeling of increased pride and determination was evident.

On June 28, 1943, the Group Combat Intelligence Officer, Major Richard Hume was transfered from the 395th Bombardment Group (H) to the 452nd Bombardment Group (H). Five intelligence officers were assigned to the Group on the same day.

Weapon training was the most important of all the courses taken at Camp Rapid. Dry range instruction was given to every man, and actual firing on the range was given to every man, within existing limitations.

On Jly 9, 1943, Major Oliver was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) during the temporary absense of Lt. Colonel Wangeman. Major Kaufman was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 728th Bombardment Squadron (H), Major Jewett was appointed acting Commanding Officer of the 729th Bombardment Squadron (H), Captain Joseph assumed the duties of acting Commanding Officer of the 730th Bombardment Squadron (H), and 2nd Lt. Borneman took over the steering wheel of the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H). The organization was growing stronger and firmer.

The memorable day of July 9, 1943 witnessed the start of the schooling and the training of the flying officers and enlisted men at the Army Air Force School of Applied Tactics at Orlando, Florida. Here, they went to work at the world's greatest Air Force tactical school after Brig. General Hume S. Peabody bid the men welcome. Until July 21, 1943, valuable information and knowledge were transmitted to the officers and enlisted men during a series of lectures from men well skilled in foreign service experience.

Simulated combat conditions were created for the air echelon on July 21, 1943, when they flew down to an airfield at Brooksfield, Florida and commenced the tactical school's flying schedule.

A familiarization flight was the "Order of the Day" on July 22, 1943. A six plane formation threw shadows on the ground the next day when the first mission flew to wilmington, North Carolina. It was a good trip with a dash of excitement thrown in. One plane, piloted by Captain Bilger, was forced to make an emergency landing at Shaw Field, South Carolina. But like the Marines, the crew " had the situation well in hand."

For the next few days, missions were made to Baton Rouge, La., New Orleans, La., and Charleston, S.C.

On July 27, 1943, the 452nd flew out on the Gulf of Mexico, then to Mobile, Alabama, and back. The next day, the air fleet flew to the Pinecastle Air Base where several high ranking Army and Navy officials were given a "buggy ride" in the B 17's.

A small island off the Gulf of Mexico was the object of July 29's mission. This was a long over-water trip, 1200 miles in distance. This mission concluded the flying schedule in Florida. The Commanding Officer's leadership on the ground and in the air, the intelligence sections presenting simulated enemy situations, and the operation's sections work had clinched the key flying echelons confidence and built the basis of a real "Esprit de Corps."

The ten days were completed and lessons had been learned. Only 240 hours had passed since the men left Orlando, Florida, but it was the most important period in the flying echelon's training. "They proved themselves to one another."

Back at Camp Rapid, on July 15, 1943, a Special Courts-Martial was appointed. On the roster were: Major Jewett, Major Kaufman, Lt. Pyles, Lt. Beach, Lt. Gegan, Captain Henry, Lt. Gillespi, Lt. Daily, and Lt. Borneman, and Captain Bertram C. Joseph was appointed Summary Courts-Martial. Captain James A. Forrest was also appointed Summary Courts-Martial the next day.

Captain Chollack attained the honor of being the first Commissioned Officer to be granted a three day leave on July 30. And on the next day, July 31, 1943, all men on detached service at Brooksfidle Airfield flew to Orlando, Florida and then came by train to Camp Rapid. The flying crews flew to Camp Rapid by way of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. All were returning to the fold, and on August 4, 1943 they were together with their ground echelon at Camp Rapid.

The specialist's Refresher Courses were immediately started in fuel systems, engines, propellers, superchargers, Hydralics, Oxygen, Heating, Electrical systems, Bomb racks, Instruments, Inspections, Armament, Turrets, Communications, Compass, Radio Procedure, etc.

We took to the air again on August 16, 1943, and did a little local flying over Rapid City, the gateway to the Black Hills. Daily flights followed.

The Rifle and Pistol took its proper place and on August 17, 1943, 42 officers and 575 enlisted men fired the course for qualification in Arms with the Rifle-Ca. .30, Model 1903. Of this number, 31 officers and 429 enlisted men qualified for a percentage of: Officers - 73 percent; Enlisted Men - 74 percent. The percentage to total strength was: Officers - 38 percent; Enlisted Men - 60 percent. There were 40 Officers who fired the course for qualification in Arms with the Pistol Cal. .45, of which 28 qualified for a percentage of 70 percent. The percentage to total strength was 35 percent.

Drill and athletics began to show their desirable effects on the Group. From an apparently new appearing Group on the drill field at the start of the program, the 452nd Bombardment Group on August 2o, 1943, passed in review with the appearance of veterans on parade.

A letter of commendation was sent to the Commanding Officer of the Ninth Bombardment Group at Orlando, Florida, from Lt. Colonel Wangeman, Commanding Officer of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H), on August 19, 1943. The text of the splendid commendation follows:

> "1. It is desired to commend the 1st Bombardment Squadron at Brooksville for the efficient and courteous performance of duties during this Group's tour of duty there the last two weeks in July.
> "2. The Commanding Officer, Major McKay, the S-2 Officer, Lt. Buscher, the Operation's Officer, Lt. Weir, and the Engineering Officer, Lt. Hensinger were outstanding in their efforts to cooperate with the group and offered ready and willing assistance when needed.
> "3. It was a pleasure to have worked with the officers and enlisted men of the 1st Bombardment Squadron and the personnel of the Group express their gratitude for the many considerations extended them."

Local daily flying and ground school for all personnel was the program up until August 20, 1943. This constant training was developing skilled men.

HEADQUARTERS 17TH BOMBARDMENT OPERATIONAL TRAINING WING WEL/lp
GROUP CADRE TRAINING WING
Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota

July 29, 1943.

MEMORANDUM:

To : All Concerned.

1. Attached hereto as Inclosure #1, is Specialized Training Schedule for 452nd Group for week ending August 7, 1943.

a. Facilities for Specialized Training will be available for four weeks. It is contemplated to operate two classes of two weeks duration each during the four weeks for personnel covered by items 4, 5 and 7.

(1) During the period August 2-14, inclusive, personnel present on July 31, 1943, and included in items 4, 5 and 7 on attached schedule will receive Specialized Training. During the period August 16-28, inclusive, personnel in these categories who because of later arrival or for any other reason were not trained in first two weeks will receive Specialized Training. Rosters will be so arranged that members of these classes can take the two weeks course without interruption for Squadron or other outside duties. Medical and Dental matters will be scheduled for times other than Specialized Training hours, as far as members of these classes are concerned. Every effort will be made to hold absences to a minimum.

(2) Program for personnel other than those covered by items 4, 5 and 7, will contemplate a course of four weeks duration.

2. Schedules for Squadrons E and F, 457th Group, are attached as Inclosures #2 and #3, respectively.

3. All men not otherwise scheduled above will be divided equally into Flights A and B, with following schedules:

MEMORANDUM:

To : All Concerned.

1. Attached hereto are schedules for week ending August 21, 1943, for 452nd Group, as follows:

a. Specialized Training.

(1) As Inclosure #1, Specialized Training Schedule for first week, second term, applicable to Specialists not previously trained covered in Items 4, 5, and 7. Rosters in Squadrons will be so arranged that members of these classes can take the two weeks course without interruption for Squadron or other outside duties. Medical and Dental matters will be scheduled outside Specialized Training hours for men in Specialties covered by Items 4, 5, and 7.

(2) Inclosure #1 is also applicable to Specialists covered by items other than 4, 5, and 7, as the third week of Specialized Training. See Par. 1, a, (2) of Memorandum from this Headquarters, dated July 29, 1943, transmitting schedules for week ending August 7th.

(3) Specialists who have completed Specialized Training will be used for overhead. Any available in excess of overhead requirements will be fired on range, if not already qualified; or will be sent to any applicable training activities.

b. As Inclosure #2, Basic Training Schedule for new men whose attendance at Specialized Training is not indicated.

c. Inclosure #2 will apply, until firing is completed, to Specialists due for Specialized Training, who have not qualified with rifle. Specialists will then be sent to classes scheduled in Inclosure #1.

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd, 453rd and 454th Heavy Bombardment Groups were ordered to attack and destroy the dock and warehouse area at Wilmington. (Target No. 14 as shown in Target Folder of Wilmington.) At 1200 Z all groups were to assemble at 7,000 feet over Clermont. In a stepped down javelin formation they were to proceed to Mayo by way of Leesburg and Cross City. At Mayo the formation was to break down into individual groups for the run to Wilmington.

The 453rd and 454th Groups (B-24's) were to attack the harbor installations at 1450 Z and 1455 Z respectively with six airplanes each. The 452nd Group (B-17's) was to attack at 1500 Z with six Airplanes. The simulated bombing runs were to be scored by photographs.

Each plane was to carry 2 M38 practice bombs and not more than 50 rounds of ammunition per gun. The B-17 Group was to use the Ocala Range (North Range) and make one pass releasing the two bombs per plane on the element leader. The B-24 Groups were to bomb the South Cedar Keys Bombing Range using the same tactics. After the bombing all guns were to be fired at the 9th Group Gunnery Range.

Intelligence indicated that safest approach could be made at an altitude above 20,000 feet and from the North.

452nd Bombardment Group

Six aircraft of this organization took off from Brooksville Air Base between 1130 Z and 1133 Z, six planes in 3 minutes. No rendezvous with the other Groups were made at Clermont. The rendezvous was scheduled for 1200 Z at 7,000 feet. An hour later this group saw 3 B-24's over Mayo where the formation was to split up into individual Groups. The six aircraft reached Wilmington at 1543 Z. One plane made an emergency landing at Shaw Field, S. C. The other five landed at their home base between 1849 Z and 1855 Z.

ROUTE OUT:

Brooksville to Clermont, 7,000 feet.
Clermont to Leesburg to Cross City to Mayo, 7,000 feet to 11,000 feet.
30 deg-22 min N; 81 deg 58 min W, started climb to 21,000 feet from 34 deg-14 min N; 80 deg-09 min W to Target.

SIMULATED TARGET:

All aircraft made the simulated attack at 1543 Z to 1545Z at 21,000 feet on a heading of 90 degrees. Due to bad weather the course was altered and the target was reached late. Photographs of the target were taken.

ENEMY AIR OPPOSITION:

Two P-51's attacked at 1856 Z while the planes were landing at Brooksville, two passes were made headon from 12 o'clock. Gunners claim they could have destroyed the fighters.

ROUTE BACK:

Wilmington to 33 deg-51 min N; 77 deg-55 min W at 19,000 feet direct route to landfall at 31 deg-00 min N; 81 deg-25 min W at 12,500 feet to Cedar Keys Gunnery Range to Brooksville at 1,000 feet.

BOMBING AT RANGE:

Due to weather conditions and inability to see the targets at either the gunnery or bombing range, no bombs were released or guns fired except the one aircraft fired 500 rounds at the gunnery range with accurate results.

OBSERVATIONS:

A- Shipping - Several merchant vessels were sighted in the vicinity of Charleston about 1630 Z from 10,000 feet. Eight to ten merchant vessels were sighted in the Wilmington Harbor area at 1543 Z from 21,000 feet.

B- Air - A U.S. Naval Blimp at 32 deg-00 min N; 80 deg-30 min W at 1700 Z alt 500 feet. 25 PT's flying at 500 to 5,000 feet over Orangeburg, S. C. 3 B-24's over Mayo at 1310 Z at 7,000 feet.

Plan of Mission

The 452nd, 453rd and 454th Heavy Bombardment Groups were ordered to attack "Schorndorf Synthetic Oil Works" located on the northwest outskirts of "Berlin". (Target No. 3 on photograph of Baton Rouge Refinery and Tank Farm).

The 454th Group was ordered to make the simulated attack at 1650 Z, the 453rd at 1700 Z and the 452nd at 1710 Z. Attack was to be scored by photographs.

Each gun, loaded with 50 rounds of ammunition, was to be fired over water enroute to the simulated target. Returning, each plane, loaded with two M38 bombs, was to release them on the Cedar Keys North Water Target. Thereafter all planes were to return to their bases and land.

Intelligence indicated that the target was heavily camouflaged and smoke pots have been reported effective. A dummy is located two miles directly north. Storage tanks cover a large area down to the docks on the river. The power station, refinery, and administration building are located east of the tank farm.

ROUTE BACK:

Target at Baton Rouge to 28 deg-00 min N; 87 deg-00 min W, 21000 feet to Cedar Keys Bombing Range, 21,000 feet let down to 1,000 feet to Brooksville and landing.

BOMBING AT RANGE:

Five aircraft attacked at 2005 Z at an altitude of 10,000 feet on a heading of 270 degrees. Each plane released two practice bombs. Results of bombing were poor due to lead bombardier failing to adjust selector on bomb bay doors and due to lack of target information for brifing on specific target to be bombed. One plane made a dry run because of bomb rack malfunctions. Weather over Range was reported to be bad with scattered clouds.

OBSERVATION:

A-Shipping - Ten ships at docks in New Orleans were sighted at 1712 Z from 20,000 feet. Several small vessels at 28 deg-17min N; 83 deg-20 Min W at 1430 Z at 2,000 feet.

B-Air - None.

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd, 453rd and 454th were ordered to attack the wharves at New Orleans where large enemy supplies are being landed. The 453rd and 454th Groups were to rendezvous with the 452nd Group over Apalachicola at 1655 Z in a stepped down javelin formation at 10,000 feet after the simulated attack. The formation was to be maintained until arriving at the South Cedar Keys Bombing Range where they were to break up and bomb in individial groups. Thereafter they were to return to their their bases and land.

The 452nd Group was to make a simulated attack on the wharves at 1500 Z, The 453rd at 1505 Z andthe the 454th at 1510 Z.

The groups were to load two M38 practice bombs per plane which would be released at the Bombing Range on return from simulated target. Fifty rounds of ammunition per gun were to be fired over enroute to New Orleans.

Intelligence indicated that the wharf area was heavily defended on all approaches. Enemy N aval forces control waterways leading to New Orleans and the waters of the Gulf in the area around the mouth of the Mississippi River. A balloon barrage was reported up to an altitude of 6,000 feet at the southeast end of the city from the South and West banks of the river. Light AA installations lie on both banks around the wharf area. Heavy AA rings the city 5 miles from center on the South and East.

Bro - 39 -- 452nd Gp (H)

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd, 453rd and 454th Heavy Bombardment Groups were ordered to attack the docks and repair shops at Charleston, S. C. (Target No. 1 on Photograph V-50 of Charleston).

The 452nd Group was to take off at 1100 Z and fly a course of 45 degrees, Navigators were to work R/A to assemble the group at 1440 Z at 33 deg 01 min N; 79 deg 21 min W and then proceed to Charleston.

The 453rd Group was to take off from their base at 1130 Z and fly a course of 40 degrees. Navigators were to work R/A to assemble the group at 1450 Z at 33 deg 01 min N; 79 deg 21 min W and proceed to target.

The 454th Group was to take off at 1100 Z and fly a course of 35 degrees. Navigators were to work R/A to assemble the group at 1500 Z at 33 deg 01 min N; 79 deg 21 min W and proceed to target.

The groups were to load two M38 practice bombs per plane to be released at the South Cedar Keys Bombing Range. Simulated bombing was to be scored by photographs.

Rendezvous was to be made over Daytona Beach at 10,000 feet at 1700 Z in a stepped down javelin formation. Formation was to be maintained until reaching the Bombing Range where they were to break into individual groups for practice bombing.

Intelligence indicated strong defenses with AA accurate at 20,000 feet, a balloon barrage effective at 12,000 feet directly over target and the greatest defensive strength at the south end of the city.

A teletype message filed at 2027 Z cancelled the mission for the 453rd and 454th Group.

The 452nd was to continue mission as planned.

CONVOY AND MOBILE, ALA.
Bro-40 -- 452nd Gp (H)

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452n Heavy Bombardment Group was ordered to attack an enemy convoy (Primary Target) last reported at 28 deg-18 min N; 88 deg-15 min W on a course of 95 degrees at 12 knots. After attacking the convoy they were to proceed to Mobile (Secondary Target) to attack and destroy the docks there (Target No. 2 on Mobile photograph No. V-36).

They were ordered to attack the enemy convoy at 2100 Z and the target at Mobile as soon as possible therafter. The convoy was to be a B-17 acting as a reconnaisance plane which would release slick when contacted by lead plane.

After simulated attack the formation was to break up and each plane return to Brooksville to fly through Searchlight arrriving in the following manner; one plane on course 1 at 0100 Z at 10,000 feet, one plane on course 2 at 12, 000 feet at 0100 Z, one plane on course 3 at 14,000 feet at 0100 Z. One plane on course 1 at 11,000 feet at 0105 Z, one plane on course 2 at 13,000 feet at 0105, one plane on course 3 at 15,000 feet at 0105 Z. Upon completing a run from West to East to 31 deg-33 min W longitude, they were to lose 2,000 feet of altitude and return on their assigned course to their respective initial points for another run through the lights. Navigation lights were to be turned off while in searchlight area. Each plane was to make two runs through the lights at the altitude specified.

Planes were to carr y 2-M38 bombs and all guns were to be fired over water enroute to convoy or Mobile.

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd Heavy Bombardment Group was ordered to carry out a simulated attack at 1800 Z on Desterrado Island (22 deg-33 min N; 89 deg-47½ min W) being used by the enemy for aubmarine repair and refuelling depot.

After simulated attack they were to proceed 30 miles to the north where the lead ship would drop a slick. One run was to be made over the slick, and each plane was to release two M38 practice bombs.

Upon completion of bombing run, all planes were to return to Brooksville and land.

Intelligence Narrative No. 24 - Day Operations, 30 July 43.

COLUMBIA, S.C.

Bro - 43 -- 452nd Group

PLAN OF MISSION

The 452nd Heavy Bombardment Group was ordered to attack the water works in the city of Bremon, Germany, located on the Weser River (Columbia, S.C. 34 deg-00 min N; 81 deg-04 min W). Base located 24 miles due west of Kings Lynn on overlay No. 4. Simulated attack was to be made at 1615 Z, and bombing to be scored by photographs.

After simulated attack, they were to proceed to Cross City at 10,000 feet, arriving at 1820 Z, and continue to north target at Cedar Keyd, where each plane would release 2 M38 practice bombs. After bombing they were to return to base (Brooksville).

UNIT	DISPATCHED	NO. ATTACKING SIMULATED TARGET	ABORTIVES	NO. ATTACKING BOMBING RANGE

Camp Rapid for the first time, wo future had in store for us.

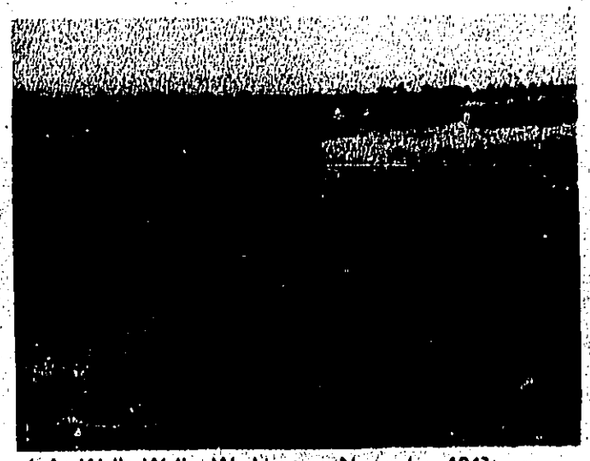
5 Pendleton Field, Oregon, October 1943, was our first move towards the ETO. It also marked the beginning of flight schedules.



6 At Walla Walla, Washington, November 1943, operational training began in earnest. Ice, snow caused much adverse flying conditions.

7 Thanksgiving Dinners at Walla Walla were sponsored by individual squadrons. The wives of servicemen were invited guests.

8 Air and ground crews received in Pyote, Texas, December 1943, ready seas duties.

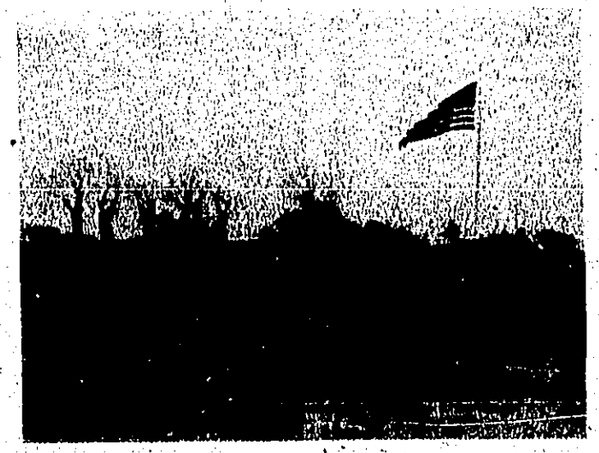
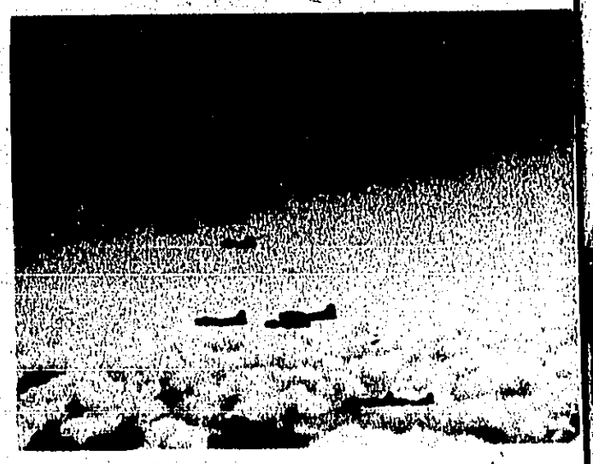
11 Arriving at Deopham Green, England, early in the morning of January 10, 1944, we soon took the station over from the R.A.F.



12 At the official ceremony of receiving the base from the R.A.F., Lieutenant-Colonel Satterwhite accepts for the U.S.A.A.F.



13 February 5th, 1944, initiated the operational activity of the group on its first combat mission to Romilly, France.

14 Mission after mission mounted up

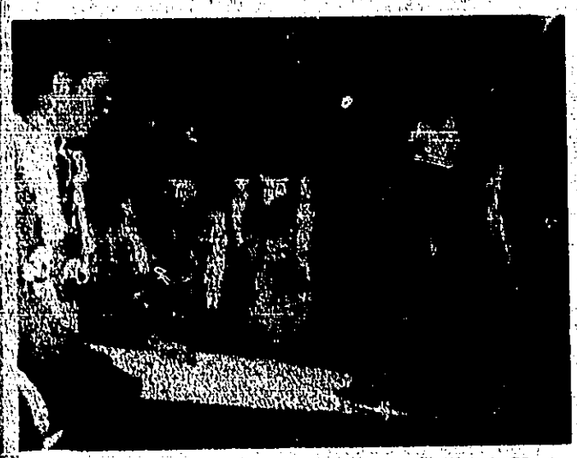
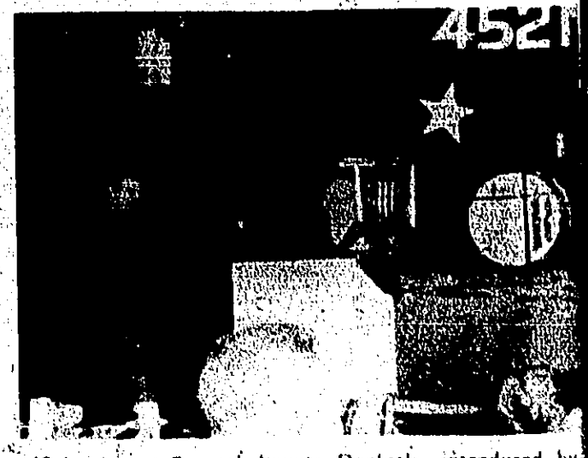
by Lieutenant-Colonel Satterwhite



17 Even "Yank" magazine carried this photo of 452nd airman prior to the Third Air Division's first Russian shuttle mission.

18 The 100th Mission Party was one of the group's outstanding social activities and a wonderful evening for all.



19 Lieutenant-General Jimmie Doolittle, introduced by Major Harold R. Thoreson, addresses the group on their first anniversary.

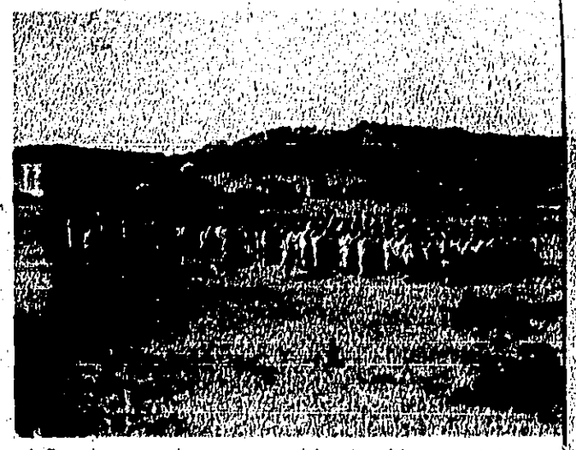
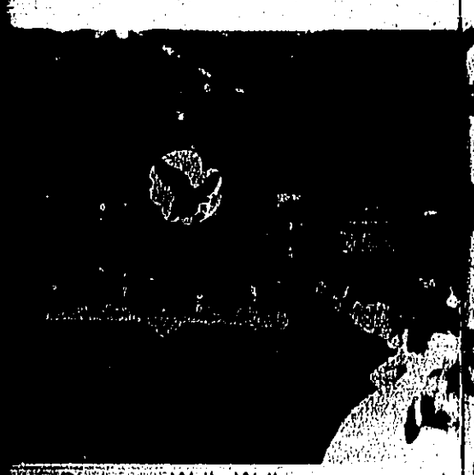
2 The main gate stared us coldly in the face as we entered Camp Rapid for the first time, wondering what the future had in store for us.

3 After forming the integral parts of the group, we met our first of eight group commanders, Lieutenant-Colonel Herbert O. Wangeman.



4 Parades, guard mounts, and hours of basic training were the outstanding features of our stay at Camp Rapid.

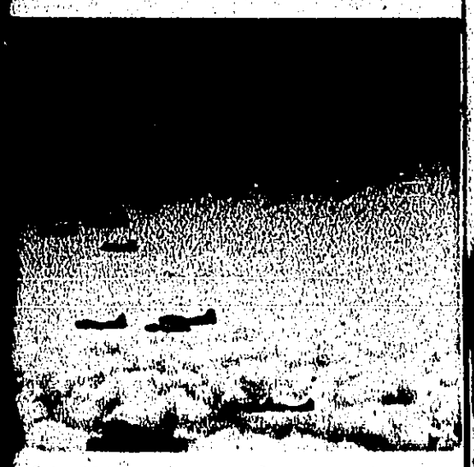


...ing Dinners at Walla Walla were sponsored ...idual squadrons. The wives of servicemen ...ted guests.

8 Air and ground crews received intensive training at Pyote, Texas, December 1943, readying them for overseas duties.

9 There's nothing like another clothing inspection at Camp Shanks, New York, to celebrate a wild New Year's Eve.

10 Aboard the Queen Elizabeth on New Year's Day . . . the comfort and luxury of this modern liner are still unknown.



... 5th, 1944, initiated the operational activity ...roup on its first combat mission to Romilly.

14 Mission after mission mounted rapidly and it was not long before the first awards ceremony and presentations by Lieutenant-Colonel Satterwhite.

15 Staff-Sergeant Paul Steiner is hoisted on the shoulders of his buddies, as he gains the distinction of being the first to complete a tour.

16 More than 330,000 pounds of high explosives were dropped on Nazi coastal defenses as the group flew three operational missions on "D" Day.

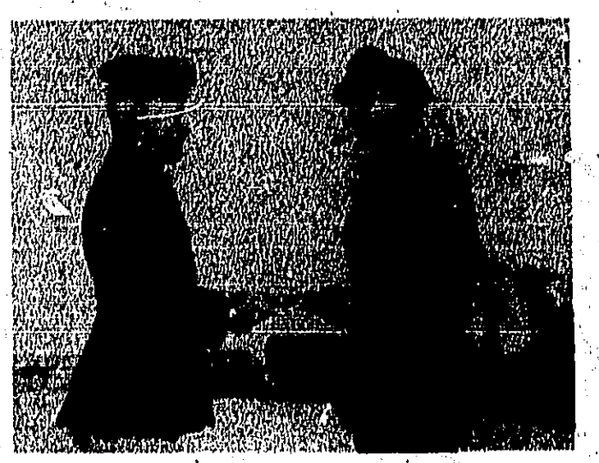
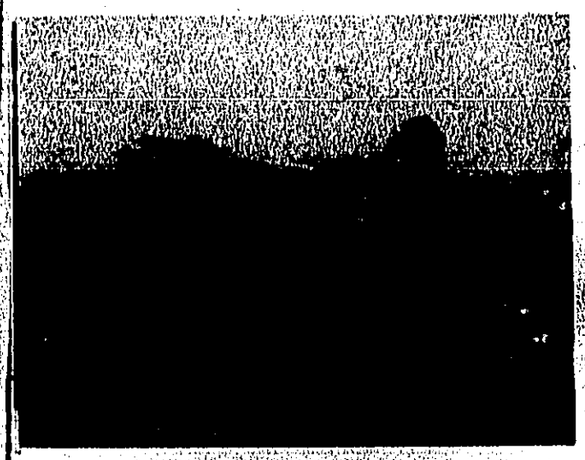
23 The 200th Mission party was strictly an enlisted man's affair. Plenty of beer, women-folk, and dancing topped the bill.

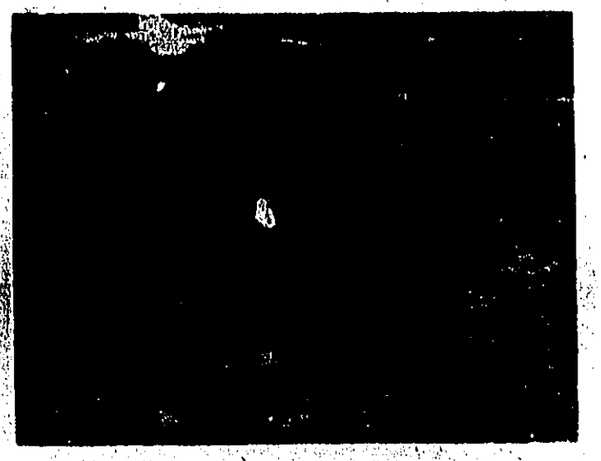


24 The 87th Station Complement commanded by Major Horace G. Oliver, received the "Meritorious Service Plaque."

25 Officers playing the role of "waiter" high-lighted the candle-light cabaret night at the Aero Club Anniversary Party.



26 One of several "Chow Hound" missions helped supply food to the starving populace of Holland.



27 Ground and airmen fly low over famous continental cities on a most popular "Cook's Tour."

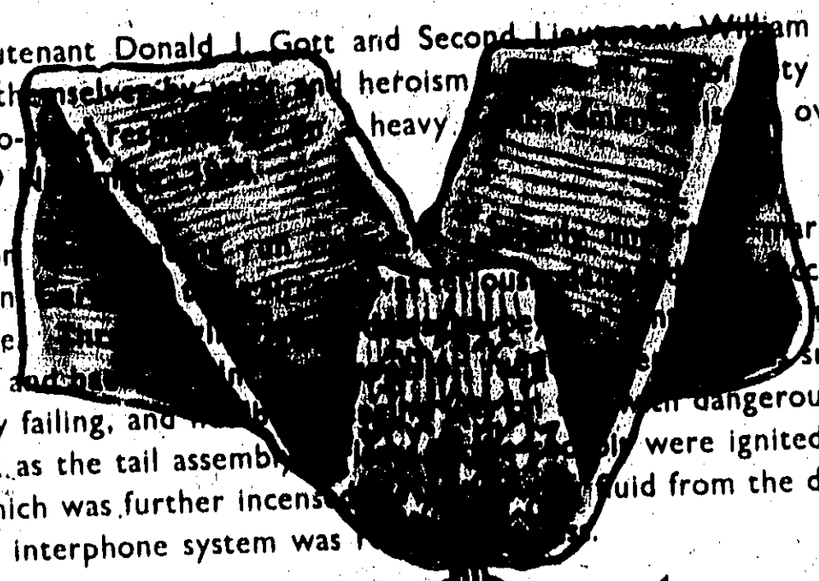
MEDAL OF HONOR



First Lieutenant Donald J. Gott and Second Lieutenant William E. Metzger distinguished themselves by valor and heroism [illegible] while serving as pilot and co-pilot of a heavy [illegible] over Saarbrucken, Germany, 9 [illegible]

While on [illegible] marshalling yards at Saarbrucken [illegible] accurate and intense flak barrage [illegible] number 1 engine caught fire and [illegible] smoking badly and was rapidly failing, and [illegible] dangerous flames reaching as far back as the tail assembly [illegible] were ignited and a fire raged therein which was further incensed [illegible] fluid from the damaged hydraulic lines. The interphone system was [illegible]

In addition to these critical difficulties, the engineer was wounded in the leg and the radio operator's arm was severed below the elbow. Lieutenant Metzger applied a tourniquet to the radio operator's arm, but suffering from the intense pain and extreme hemorrhage, the radio operator fell unconscious. Faced with the imminent explosion of his aircraft and death to his entire crew, mere seconds before bombs away on the assigned target, Lieutenant [illegible] Lieutenant Metzger decided to fly the flaming bomber to friendly territory and attempt a crash landing in order to get immediate medical attention for the [illegible] radio operator. The bombs were released over enemy territory and all movable equipment was jettisoned. Lieutenant Metzger gave his parachute to another crew member whose own parachute had been damaged.

When the aircraft reached friendly territory, Lieutenant Metzger went to the rear of the plane and ordered each crew member to bail out. All crew members except the pilot, co-pilot, and radio operator bailed out of the blazing aircraft. Lieutenant Gott and Lieutenant Metzger [illegible] their own lives so that the radio operator's life could be saved [illegible] crash [illegible] under such highly dangerous conditions.

With only one normally [illegible] engine [illegible] threat of fire), Lieutenant Gott headed for an open field in [illegible] the final landing approach at approximately [illegible] struck the ground, followed by a second explosion, and disintegrated. Lieutenant Gott, Lieutenant Metzger and the radio operator were instantly killed.

Their loyalty to their crew, their determination to accomplish the task set forth to them, and their deed of knowingly performing what may have been their last service to their country, were superb examples of valor at its highest. Both officers, with grim determination, risked their lives to save the life of the radio operator, and their deed of self-sacrifice and personal bravery distinguished them from all other comrades.

FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY SECOND BOMBARDMENT GROUP (H)
ARMY AIR FORCES
GROUP S-2
HISTORICAL SECTION

SUBJECT: 452nd Bombardment Group (H) History, 20 August, 1943 - 20 September, 1943

On August 20, 1943, the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) was in a position to assume a more definite role in the Army Air Force's program of training for an overseas B-17 Combat Unit.. The Group was stationed at Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota, and had a complement of 85 Officers and 812 Enlisted Men. This was approximately sixty percent of the total strength required by the Group's Table of Organization for that date. All Enlisted Men reporting for duty immediately participated in the Group's Refresher Course in Basic Military Training. The Enlisted Men who had completed their Course in Basic Military training, attended Refresher Courses in their respective Technical specialties. The 452nd Bombardment Group (H) was in a stable condition and was awaiting the rapid expansion that was to come in the following month.

While the Group was adding new men to its roster, Leaves of Absence were granted to a number of Officers, and furloughs were granted to a number of Enlisted Men. As soon as one group would return, another group would be eligible for theirs. Morale was very good because of the just way in which they were being granted.

On August 21, 1943, it was announced that the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) would ship to an Air Base, destination unknown, where they would immediately embark upon their Group Phase Training. Without wasting any time, the four Squadrons of the Group mapped out their respective farewell gatherings for their personnel. On August 24, 1943, the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H) held the first Squadron social function of the Group at a local Hall with approximately 100 Officers and Enlisted Men joining in the fun. The next day, the 729th Bombardment Squadron (H) held a party at a local hall. About 150 Officers and Enlisted Men had the opportunity to meet each other and to share in the Squadron Esprit de Corps. The WAC Detachments from the Rapid City Army Air Base, Rapid City, South Dakota, and from Fort Meade, Sturgis, South Dakota, were the honored guests of the 730th Bombardment Squadron (H) on August 26 at their Buffet Supper and Dance held at the Rapid City Auditorium, Rapid City. That same evening, the Commanding Officer of the Squadron, 1st Lt. Ralph S. Hayes, Jr. was notified of his promotion to the rank of Captain. Honored guests for the evening were Lt. Colonel Herbert O. Wangeman, Commanding Officer of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H), and his staff. The last Squadron party of the Group was held by the 728th Bombardment Squadron (H) in the form of a Picnic at a local Picnic Park. Again the WAC Detachments cooperated. The Camp Rapid newspaper, "ON THE BEAM", published a special edition of the paper honoring the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) on August 28, 1943. The Edition was called, "Goodbye! Goodluck! The Fighting 452nd".

A Special Court-Martial was appointed on August 31, 1943. Detail for the Court: Major John J. Jewett, Major Robert E. Kaufman, Major Edward A. Rosen, Captain Robert O. Henry, 1st Lt. Charles L. Daily. Trial Judge Advocate: 1st Lt. Bogie. Defense Counsel: Captain Harold P. Thoreson. On that same day, a Board of Officers was appointed for the purpose of Flight Checking the instrument flying proficiency of all rated pilots of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H). Detail for the Board: Lt. Colonel Herbert O. Wangeman, Captain Archie S. Adair, Captain John M. Howard, Captain Donald E. Bilger, Captain Talmadge D. Reed, Captain William G. Godbey, Captain Dain E. Wirt, Captain Ralph S. Hayes, Captain George J. Oxrider, 1st Lt. Gerald R. Carris.

Twenty Combat Crews reported for duty on September 1, 1943, and the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) was ready for its phase training. The Group had a difficult task ahead of it. The Combat Crews and the Ground Echelon were living at Camp Rapid and the crews were to be trained at the Rapid City Army Air Base, Rapic City South Dakota, 15 miles away. This situation meant added difficulties such as transportation, completing their regular army routine obligations in less time, and working with offices and departments that were not centrally located. In order to complete the required training under these conditions, it meant complete cooperation, strict discipline, and good leadership.

The twenty new crews were assigned to the four squadrons of the Group, five to the 728th Bombardment Squadron (H), five to the 729th Bombardment Squadron (H), five to the 730th Bombardment Squadron (H) and five to the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H). These twenty crews had to complete a number of hours of the following subjects in approximately twenty-four days: Medical, Chemical Warfare, Intelligence, Ditching, Navigation, C.N.T., Link Trainer, Bomb Theory, Turrets, Communication, Engineering, Meteorology, Armament, Gunnery Range, Blinker, Machine Gun and Bomb Trainer. At the completion of the twenty-four days, the flying schedule and Ground School schedule had been completed. The success of the program was due to excellent work and cooperation on the part of the Schools Officers, Operations Officers and Instructors who maintained schedules despite lack of facilities.

On September 1. 1943, the first group of promotions for the Enlisted Men was announced. This, of course, was good news for the men.

Twenty-three Enlisted Men were authorized to participate in aerial flights starting on September 2, 1943. On September 3, 1943, 2nd Lt. Russell S. Noblet left for Walla Walla, Washington for a five day course in Aircraft recognition. The following day, Chaplain Arnold T. Anderson was granted a leave of Absence.

1st Lt. Aubrey K. Baker assumed command of Group Operations on September 5, 1943, by being appointed temporary Group Operations Officer.

Another Special Courts-Martial was appointed on September 8, 1943. Detail for the Court: Major Oliver, Major Jewett, Major Kaufman, Major Rosen, Captain Henry and 1st Lt. Daily. Trial Judge Advocate: 1st Lt. Bogie. Defense Counsel: Captain Harold P. Thoreson. The following day, September 9, 1943, Lt. Harmon O. Pyles was appointed temporary acting Group Engineer Officer.

During Reveille on the morning of September 10, 1943, the men stationed at Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota experienced their first fire. The building which housed the Group Intelligence and Group Operations was aflame. The trained fire fighters of the group performed a fine job and in a short time, the blaze was put out.

Two duty appointments were made on September 14, 1943 when Captain Harold P. Thoreson was appointed Group Schools Officer and Lt. Abram J. Cohen was appointed Group Special Services Officer.

Special Courts-Martial was appointed on September 16, 1943. Detail for the Court: Major Oliver, Major Jewett, Major Kaufman, Captain Henry, 1st Lt. Daily and 2nd Lt. Math. Trial Judge Advocate: Major Rosen. Defense Counsel: Captain Harold P. Thoreson. And on September 20, 1943, another Special Courts-Martial was appointed. Detail for the Court: Major Oliver, Major Jewett, Major Kaufman, Captain Henry, 1st Lt. Henry and 2nd Lt. Math. Trial Judge Advocate: Captain Forrest. Defense Counsel: Captain Blizzard.

All during this month, the planes attached to the 452nd Bombardment Group (H) were conducting local flights and local missions. Approximately 100 flights were made by each squadron from August 20, 1943 to September 20, 1943, and about 24 missions were conducted. The missions were considered complete successes. Of course, the planes of the Group had their nick-names. The 728th Bombardment Squadron (H) had the "Lady Stardust". The 729th Bombardment Squadron (H) had the "Sky-Hog". The 730th Bombardment Squadron (H) named theirs the "Daisy May" and another the "Daisy June". And the 731st Bombardment Squadron (H) named theirs the "Edna Sheila" and "Westward Ho".

Two of the Squadrons of the Group chose their Squadron emblems. The 729th Bombardment Squadron (H) shows a wolf dressed in flying togs sitting on top of a B-17. The wolf clutches a red bomb under one arm, and with the other, he steers the bomber with a steering wheel that juts out of the roof of the flying Fortress. The 731st Bombardment Squadron (H) insignia shows a fierce looking eagle clutching two bombs in its claws, with streaks of lightning in the background. These insignias were chosen by the Enlisted Men.

The final results, as of September 20, 1943, in Rifle, Carbine and Pistol marksmanship were excellent. Of the enlisted men who fired the Pistol Cal. .45, 5 qualified as Sharpshooters, and 8 qualified as Marksmen. 21 Enlisted Men qualified as Experts, 70 qualified as Sharpshooters and 291 Qualified as Marksman in the Course for Qualification in Arms with the Carbine. Of the men who qualified with the Rifle Cal. .30, Model 1903, 3 qualified as Experts, 15 Qualified as Sharpshooters and 305 qualified as Marksmen. Of the Officers qualifying with the Pistol, Cal. 45, 5 qualified as Experts, 16 qualified as Sharpshooters, and 46 qualified as Marksmen. With the Carbine, 4 Officers qualified as Experts, 3 Qualified as Sharpshooters, and 11 qualified as Marksman. 3 Qualified as Experts, 3 as Sharpshooters and 29 as Marksmen in the course for qualification in Arms with the Rifle Cal. .30, Model 1903. The total qualifying were: Enlisted Men: 13 in Pistol, 382 in the Carbine, and 323 in Rifle. Officers: 67 in the Pistol, 18 in the Carbine and 35 in the Rifle.

Drill and athletics were still showing their desirable effects on the Group at Camp Rapid. Retreat ceremonies were proving to the men that they had a fine Group in the making, for guests such as Governor Bricker of Ohio commented upon the fine military bearing of the Group and upon their perfect marching.

During Retreat ceremonies on September 15, 1943, the Commanding Officer of the 452nd Bombardment Group (H), Lt. Colonel Herbert O. Wangeman, was presented the Distinguished Flying Cross. The medal was pinned on our Commanding Officer by the Commanding Officer of Camp Rapid, Rapid City, South Dakota, Lt. Colonel Carroll Tye. The award was given for outstanding leadership and the completion of nineteen combat missions over enemy occupied territory. This was a proud day for the 452nd Bombardment Group.

The period of time from August 20, 1943 to September 20, 1943 was a significant one for the group. It was faced with many difficulties, yet it kept on an even keel. It progressed rapidly and it grew strongly. All of this was a fine compliment to good leadership and close cooperation. The Group had planned its work and had worked its plan.

BUENA FORTUNA

To the officers and onlisted men of the 452nd, we say Farewell. For the past several weeks we have trained together for war and victory. During that time our association has been nothing but superb; in fact, ideal. There may be as good officers and enlisted men in this great army of America, but none better.

We've all worked hard, taking the intensive training most seriously. Now you're going away. But we are not being separated. In fact, we shall always be together. For the bonds forged between us here shall never break. We are welded in unity to fight and defeat Hitlerism everywhere, for all time. Nothing will break that unity and determination.

From our contact with you, we know you can be depended upon to do your full share of the fighting at the front. You have learned well your military lessons.

When you get there, offer no quarter. Hand it back in double measure. Fight with the burning hatred of real American anti-fascism. Remember the treachery of Pearl Harbor and the bravery of our brothers at Bataan. Remember, too, the mothers' sons whose bodies were shattered by bombs at Mukden, in Ethiopia, and Spain. Avenge those who now die in Sicily and on the glorious plains of Russia. They are our brothers, too, as Karkov, Orel and Bryansk are America's first line of defense.

Farewell, 452nd. We shall meet again in the fiery fray out of whose womb shall spring our new world of peace and plenty.

Welcome, Sir!

Welcome to Camp Rapid, Lt. Col. Tye. Fighting men greet a fighting C.O.

Here, we have a hard training for war and victory program. It's a win the war and peace program. Men take training most seriously. Discipline is excellent. Morale is extremely high.

We have a rugged program. And we have fun too - friendship and good fellowship. For at Camp Rapid, Sir, we have representative Americans: men who train to defeat Hitlerism with a song of democracy on their lips and a poem of future happiness in their hearts.

As we welcome you here, Sir, we know that every man will intensify his training. Every man will pledge again undying hatred towards Nazi-Fascism.

Let every man fight harder for victory and a just peace.

I find this a very fine Camp and was agreeably surprised at its location. It appears the men have the war effort at heart and are doing their best to defeat Hitler and the Japanese. I am much pleased, in fact, honored to have been given the assignment as C.O. for the Group Cadre Training Command.

Lt. Col. Carroll Tye

The defeatists who talk about going back to the good old days of Americanism mean the time when there was plenty for the few and scarcity for the many. We must not bequeath a second blood bath to our children.

VICE PRESIDENT HENRY WALLACE

GOODBYE

It is with deepest regret that we part with the Asst. Editor, Pfc Burt Weithorn and feature writer, Cpl. John Gross, two 452nd boys.

Never in the army have we met two soldiers with whom we enjoyed working as much. Burt, a Brooklyn boy and former Social Worker, and Jack (John) a South Dakota farm lad and former school teacher, helped us bring ON THE BEAM into life. We nurtured it together, like a babe, until it developed into a full fledged spokesman for enlisted men.

So long, fellows! Your deep friendship, affection, skill and beautiful idealism as well as your fight for a free people in a free world, cannot be replaced.

We pledge you both to carry on to V. Sgt. Dorio

A special thank you goes to Mrs. Lillian Phillips who typed this edition of the paper. While her husband serves the army in Africa, she is serving the Army here at Camp Rapid. A very special THANK YOU, Lillian.

On behalf of the 452nd Bombardment Group, it is desired to express to Major Carmichael, Commanding Officer, his successor, Lt. Colonel Tye and to the entire staff of the Camp Rapid Cadre Training Command, how much we all have enjoyed our tour of duty here and above all the many benefits derived therefrom.

Whereas our officers and men had not been schooled in the art of drill, there exists today the true acclaim that we are all finished drillers. Drilling to some has had little appeal but let it be not said that drilling is not the greatest medium for cultivating team-work, coordination, discipline and esprit de corps. It is considered that many of those most essential properties have been developed here through drilling, which has already reflected benefits in the rank and file of the Group.

Fire on the range has proved its worth by the splendid response of our men to the expert instruction given by the range officers. Results have been good. Some officers have qualified in both pistol and rifle. Let us not forget that fifty percent of all Group personnel must qualify in a single arms. Those who join the Group after we leave Camp Rapid Will have to fire for qualification. They in turn will receive instruction in dry runs and actual firing from those who have benefited from fire and range instruction here.

Ground school courses have been run on schedule. Much is to be gained by ground school instruction. The key note to success here is for the instructor to be thoroughly prepared in his presentation. I did not get around to all the classes but those I did attend were well prepared.

Retreat has been most inspiring and made colorful by the drill performance of the men and the dispatch of the officers in command. There is nothing like a good band and my laurels go to the Camp Rapid Base Band which has instilled spirit into every soldier and officer within its hearing.

I have failed to touch on many of the benefits accorded the Group by the Cadre Training Command but I will not forget to mention the Officers' Club. The good morale stimulated by the Club has been an exceptional means of recreation. The manner in which lunch is served is enjoyable. Mingling with the officers at the Club during short periods after lunch has made for good fellowship and better understanding between the officers of the Group. The mid-day break the Club offers us is appreciated. Speaking of the Club, mention should be made of the Friday night dance which met with great success without any "dry-runs".

In closing it is desired to thank the Camp Rapid Cadre Command for the most complete Basic Training ever received by the Group as such and for the many considerations shown us individually and as a group.

HERBERT O. WANGEMAN,
Lt. Colonel, Air Corps,
Commanding Officer,
452nd Bomb Group.

TO CAMP RAPID

Camp Rapid, what a fine Camp! We arrived at Rapid City, one day in June, and as we entrained, we were greeted by a very large, fine looking Major, Carmichael, by name, who seemed to dominate the entire platform and landscape too. He had arranged everything for us, staff cars for the officers, and trucks for the men. In about ten minutes, we were at Camp Rapid and it looked like home from the very first. Quarters for the officers in a mess hall, clean beds with sheets and pillow cases, cool and comfortable. For the men, framed tents, cots, mattresses, and only six men to a tent. Modern latrines, showers, lots of hot water, and kitchens and mess halls of the latest type. Cooking with gas too, and you old mess Sgts know what that means. We set up house-keeping that day, but on the morrow, we really began to find out what Major Carmichael insisted it stand for.

It was a new idea, this type of Air Force training. Rather basic, but we all needed it, and the Major handed it out. First thing, he gathered us all in the stadium and talked "turkey". There was no mistaking what he wanted, or, for that matter, what he would get.

Then the schedule started. Drill, PT, lectures on military maps, military hygiene, protection of aircraft on the ground, chemical warfare, unarmed defense, communications, bayonet drill, grenade practise, defensive positions, camouflage, interesting training films, range firing, and to top it off, a Retreat Parade three times a week. Oh, yes! I forgot the guardmount. Shouldn't have done that, as it deserves a paragraph, but perhaps it would be best to skip it.

Then, in August, we went into specialized training with classes for the Armorer, Gunner, Sight Specialist, Turrett Specialist, Armament Officer, Bombsight Specialist, Line Crews, Engineer Officers, Aerial Engineers, Bombadiers, Navigators, Radio Operators, Communication Officers, Pilots, etc. All very comprehensive, with able instructors for all.

Now, we are about finished with this basic course and have grown considerably in strength. But above all, we have grown in Esprit De Corps, and morale. We have absorbed the training like a sponge, and if given only half a chance, we will bring credit and honor to our splendid Commanding Officer, Lt. Colonel Herbert O. Wangeman when we "contact".

In leaving Camp Rapid, we wish to express our appreciation to the Staff for their patience, kindliness, and excellent instruction. We will never forget them.

MAJOR OLIVER
EXECUTIVE OFFICER

1. Two and one-half months ago, organization of the 452nd Bombardment Group began. The birth and growth of our group was undergone here at Camp Rapid.

2. The Adjutant's office of any new unit is always faced with real handicaps due to lack of material, equipment, and hundreds of minor items necessary to make a group properly function. Most of these necessities are slow in arriving for any new group.

3. In the case of the Adjutant's office of this group, I wish to say that cheerful and generous cooperation from every member of the Camp has expedited our stage of organization and made our stay both pleasant as well as constructive.

4. On leaving Camp Rapid, it is right and proper that we express our gratitude to the Commanding Officer and his staff for their cooperation.

THE TECHNIQUE OF KISSING

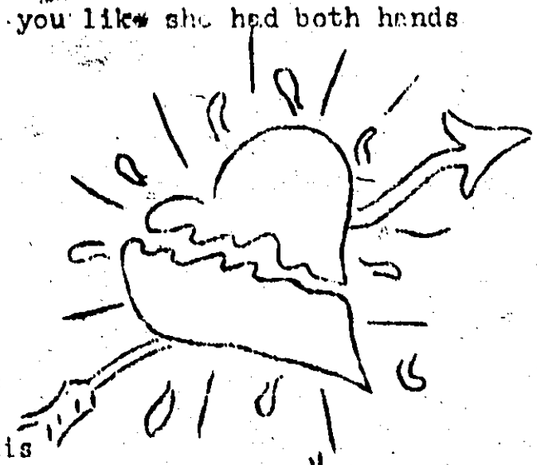
It was a beautiful summer night, the car was riding along a deserted country road. Slowly he came to a stop beneath a wide branching elm with soft fingering beams of moonlight entwining between the leaves. Picture yourself in the same situation with a beautiful girl along at your side. At any time you may meet up with this, and undoubtedly you will be the unwarranted victim of one of these women.

First, you may have at your side a girl who has not traveled the country very much. This kind crams herself as near the right side of the car as possible. Inch by inch, she straddles toward the center but is constantly in doubt. At last she gives in, and throws him a kiss from the palm of her hand. She doesn't kiss boys on the first six dates.

Then we have the sophisticated type, who is willing but not always ready. This type sits quietly twiddling her fingers and bouncing with the roll of the car. She waits long enough and then decides to make the advances. Her arm slowly creeps, like a cat's tail, around your neck. And before you know it her large luscious red lips have planted their crop. But to assure you that it was not all her idea, she politely informs you that she doesn't do this for every boy, but her love for you is so much, you're just an exception.

Now we have the experienced type and one who is not only ready and willing, but able This kind is no sooner in the car and she jumps to your side. It is only a matter of minutes until she begins her processing. First her hand grabs you by the neck and then she fingers your hair until you feel as though you have come out of Madam Latrino's Beauty Shop. While you are panting away at the speed of an outboard motor, she is successfully accomplishing her purpose by running chills up and down your spine. At last she comes through and with one foot pressing on the foot board and the other hand through the windshield, you feel as though you have come out second best in a wrestling match with an octopus. These are rare..hold on to them.

Then there is the clinging vine type who approaches you like she had both hands weighed down with a suit case. Her arm goes around your neck in the nick of time, her face stretches upward like a turkey's neck, and with her panther eyes passionately throwing their rays, she slowly rises on the tip of her toes. Before you know it you are holding her in mid air or trying to prove yourself to be an Atlas.



Then we have the one that is constantly looking out for her own interests. This type is very discouraging. Almost every time you are ready to kiss her after strenuously proving what a genius you are, she decides that her nose needs powdering. This type is usually measured up with the one who continuously brings up the subject of what so and so wore at the last dance. This always happens just when you are ready to start action.

Of course we cannot conclude without mention of the kind that have never been kissed I have never met up with this kind myself but after all, I am not an authority on the subject. However, I do remember my uncle Oscar telling me about a girl he knew that had never been kissed before but that was before the Mayflower landed. If anyone has heard of this since the Plymouth Rock episode, please let it be known.

Well, as I said, I don't get around much with these females but it is always nice to be up on the times and save yourself a lot of trouble.

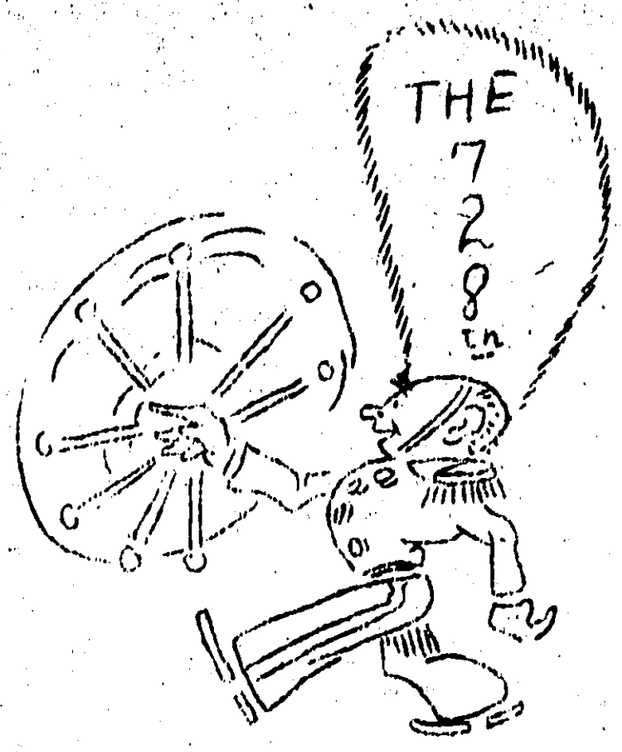
SMILES AND TRIALS OF THE 728TH

By Pfc Edward Wheeler



We'll start out with a couple of smiles.

Yes, this business of transportation is really a problem. For example: Lt. Welch of our Squadron, while suffering the agonies of the anticipation of a tooth extraction, called a cab to take him to the dentist at the air base. Then what happens? The cab gets as far as the gate and runs out of gas! Oh fine! After several frantic calls to Washington, and all that stuff, transportation was finally arranged and today we are happy to announce the departure of a very unwelcome tooth.

Then there's the sad, sad case of Lt. Wampler, also of this Squadron. He got into a cab and got about 35 yards past the gate & B L A M! The acuteness of the rubber shortage was brought to stark reality.

Now for a trial.

Oh yes, our Squadron is growing by leaps and bounds. But just try and find someone for such details as K.P. and Guard Duty. It's this way. The intelligence of our men is very high. Intellectuality prevails. The thirst for knowledge keeps such a large number in school, that between those going to class and those lucky ones who are vacationing (with the Government's permission, of course) the clerks, those loyal, brave men! (Ahem); are becoming even more haggard and worn trying to keep the duty rosters straight.

Of course promotions are always a pleasant topic. Especially if someone is getting one. T/Sgt Arthur Whiting, acting 1st Sergeant of the 728th will soon drop the word "acting" from his signature. Pfc Edwin Pinkerton, Pfc Jerome Cohler, and Pvt Thomas Sullivan will be taking over the tremendous responsibility of Corporals. Pvt James Leake will soon be addressed as "Sergeant" and Sergeant Russell Goodwin is about to add another stripe to his sleeve, that of a Staff Sergeant.

Last but far from least, Lt. George J. Oxtider, our Squadron C. O. has been promoted to the rank of Captain.

Now then, keeping in the spirit of this column, we'll end with a very cornoy joke: "The Professor turned to his class and said, "Now watch the blackboard closely, while I run through it again."

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS -- THE FATHER OF SEVEN CHILDREN RANGING IN AGES FROM NINE MONTHS TO 12 YEARS WILL REPORT FOR HIS PRELIMINARY SELECTIVE SERVICE PHYSICAL EXAMINATION ON SUNDAY. HE IS 36 YEAR OLD PETER WERP.

WERP SAYS HE WOULD PREFER TO TAKE HIS CHANCES WITH THE DRAFT RATHER THAN LEAVE HIS JOB, WHICH HAS A FUTURE, FOR ONE IN A WAR PLANT WHERE, HE SAYS, "I'D GET NOTHING MUCH EXCEPT MY SALARY."

The Knights of Columbus Hall in Rapid City was the scene of a round-up of the 729th Squadron Wednesday night. Boy oh boy, beer was flowing from all sides and from every indicatio no one was excluded from having a good time. Cpl. Henderson, who overpowered us with his wonderful voice, entertained the group by singing and playing selections on the pian in the good old "gay ninety" fashion. Sgt. Tracy joined in by singing and loving a bottle at the same time. "Nursing of the modern age"! Major Jewett brought down the house with a roar of laughter when he quite willingly gave us a rendition of the "Turkey trot". Speaking of the officers present, Capt. Adair, to whom the group is thankful for the good time, managed to keep everyone on the up side of the fence. Lt. Box, a new officer to the group seemed to be the guiding hand in the financial risks--thanks a lot. Lt. Summer had quite a time getting beer, and almost came to the conclusion that chocolate milk would have to do, but low and behold, he came through with cases of extra potent coco cola. (Or better known as beer). Pfc Du Rain gave the party up for a dashing little dish but to Joe's disappointment, someone insists on changing her name in the near future. Of the other love bugs, we find Sgt. Muskopf giving up his local number and giving his undivided attention back to his "buddies". Well, as we go scouting around the area this morning we find a few swelled heads. Yes Sir, one after another could be mentioned but we'll let Pfc Hufford and Pfc Murphy claim the blue ribbon for prize winners. News is rather limited, and, at present, everyone is concerned with the latest latrine rumors of leaving Camp Rapid. To date it is all undecided and when Pfc Vasbinder and Buttry don't agree....,Well, the question just ain't been settled. However, as we drag ourselves out this morning, we know it is one day shorter of being at Camp Rapid and once again we look forward to packing up our "cookie bags" and venture to another land. It is again time to reminisce the good times we had here as buddies and friends. To our officers, whom we have had a grand time working with, we can only say that we are thankful that we will all be travelling the road together. To our paper, "On The Beam", we are sorry to leave without taking it along. It really has been a moral builder and something the fellows have received entertainment from. It's jolly and humorous notes as well as its points of seriousness have added to make the paper a huge success. It can be said, and will be done, that the group will start building it's own paper in an attempt to provide the same purpose as "On The Beam". Good luck and a speedy victory to those we leave behind.

This Monday Eve – at the Stadium – at 7. P. M.
Camps Rapid's official farewell to the 452nd
Boxing Show – Dancing – Girls – Refreshments.
"On The Beam" will tender a testimonial to the men of the 452nd Come on down and say "Good Luck" to a great Bomb Group.

Pre Party Observation: Squadron Wolves Narey, Christensen, Ostrander, Cotton, etc. drooling over the thought of 80 WAC'S at our Squadron "shindig".

Citations to Maj. Rosen, Lt. Hayes, and Squadron Officers for their splendid co-operation. Also to the "show" and arrangement committees. It should be quite an affair.

Current Flashes: One "frog" Sgt. retreated from his lady-love's back yard when confronted with a polecat. Juneau, can that be true love?

Then there is the nice elderly lady Adams is seen with about town. Is it your other, Ike?

And we musta't forget the local lovely seen on the arm of "Cub" lately. Better be careful of her Charley or Tully will cut you out.

"Tiger" Cants down in the dumps because the little woman has gone home.

Sgt. Ormanuski received a card from AC Sgt. Mabusth, lately of our Squadron and now stationed in Lincoln, Nebr. Good Luck Chum, but where in the world did you learn to spell Sgt. Orman's name. It's the Lincoln style?

Flash! S/Sgt. Bob Parrish is the proud father of an 8 lb. baby girl. Congratulations, Pop.

What two S/Sgts are running a close race for the affections of a lovely 1941 V-8.

The Squadron boasts a Pfc from New "Joisey" who was disappointed when he discovered that his latest date was a lady.

Another Pfc holds a "Self Certificate" from one of the village belles at the local 7 and 10.

The Officers and Enlisted Men of the 730th Bomb. Squadron extend their deepest sympathies to Sgt. Thompson over the recent passing away of his Grandmother.

Reasons why Sgt. Weeks uses the sign "lingo" at roll call: Jarembinsky, Joniuszko, Makula, Chochrok, Murawski, Bibeau, Czyzeski, Moravec, Wutka, Chopulis and Uryasz.

The 729th Squadron of the 452nd Bomb Group wants to thank Mr. Doi Smith and the K of C for the use of their hall for the Squadron party. Thanks again!

The writer, on behalf of the Sq. C.O., Officers and Enlisted Men, wishes to express his appreciation for the opportunity to work with the Base Personnel of Camp Rapid, in getting our Squadron off to a flying start. No matter where we go we will always remember Camp Rapid as the place where soldiers are made. not born. To them and our own Major Oliver we owe the fact that our Squadron is the best, and we intend to keep it so under the able guidance of Captain Bilger. We know that he will pilot us through as skillfully as he does that big B-17. We are all behind, and our hats are off to you Captain.

Also, may I offer my biggest welcome from Captain Bilger to four new officers in our Squadron; Major Lawson, from Wing, is our executive officer due to his varied experience in cadre training at Camp Rapid, Lt Scott and his 29 enlisted men in the Ordnance Dept. to keep the bombs dropping. Lt. Pustaver and Lt. Cohen to act as adjutant and asst. adjutant respectively, to keep the boys out of trouble.

Congratulations are in order to Pfc. Montell and Pfc Berton for winning places on the Base Baseball Team in their too short stay here.

Two of the things we are proud of this week: 1. Our Squadron Area was the best in the Group at Saturday's inspection, 2. The 731st was selected as permanent color guard during our stay here.

Your writer was quite surprised to find the rear of our Supply Room being turned into a Photographic Dark Room for use of the Photo Section. What develops remains to be seen.

The Squadron Airplane is still living up to tradition. When acquired by said Sq. it was named "AWOL KID JR.;" for the trip to Boise, the name was changed to "DUMB HEAD" (very appropriate) and now it is designated to become "WESTWARD HO." (These changing times) What would "HERKY" say?

The 731st HONOR ROLL this week announces the following men:

T/Sgt. Stepp - Bendix Turret Class
Cpl. Powell - A. M. Systems
Sgt. Larson - A. M. Systems
Sgt. Van Conant- Qualified Rifle Expert

" THROUGH THE GRAPE VINE "

We wonder how our Penn. Captain manages to understand the sweet Southern talk of the Houston gal he has been seen with locally...Now comes the story about a certain S/Sgt of the Sq who lost to a 1st Sgt of another Sq in the conquest of a "Local Satchel" reputed to have had $300 in her possession...Then there is a story about a T Sgt who sends for his "honey baby" and then gets himself picked up by the M.P. in town. Is that the nice thing to do Stepp...Does the T Sgt in this outfit think that friction tape on letters brings results...Now that our party is over and the beer(?) is all gone, I can safely say it was all-root. How e-boot that fellows? After the grand showing Capt. Bilger made at his audition, yours truly suggested a good long contract, the duration plus 6 months.

Camp Rapid is the home summer field training camp, and Hqts. of the South Dakota National Guard.

The site of Camp Rapid was, a few years ago, a pasture. This site was Indian land and a portion of land owned by the Dept. of the Interior. It belonged to the old Indian school, discontinued about five years ago. The former institution was converted into an Indian hospital for tuberculosis, now the beautiful Sioux Sanatorium southwest of our camp.

Used for grazing purposes only this land was leased by the S. Dak. Guard for field training from 1924 to 1932, when title was obtained and it became the property of the S. Dak. Guard.

In 1934, four kitchens, mess halls, and a brick warehouse were constructed. Two kitchens were located in each regimental area. The warehouse is the one now used as the carpenter and work shop.

Funds for additional construction were difficult to obtain, but later W.P.A. funds became available and the following construction was accomplished: The target range, water and sewerage system, roads and driveways.

In 1936, the Administration building was completed and occupied. In 1937, the athletic stadium seating 2,000 persons, and a series of log bath houses were completed. Funds for further construction were unobtainable until 1939. During the next two years, the remaining buildings were completed.

The S. Dak. Guard is composed of the Adjutant General and Staff, the 147th F.A. Regt. now serving in the S.W. Pacific, the 109th Combat Engr. Regt., a portion of the original regiment being in North Africa and Sicily, and another contingent in the S.W. Pacific area, a battalion of the 109th Q.M. Regt. and the 34th Signal Co., both of which are also serving in North Africa or Sicily.

With the exception of the Administration building, Camp Rapid with its present construction has never been occupied by the S. Dak. Guard. In mid-year of 1942, this site and structures were leased to the War Dept. for $1.00 per year. Its occupancy by the 17th Bomb Wing and further transformation to a camp for cadre training of groups following the transfer of the 17th Bomb Wing Command is well known to all the personnel here.

The Administration building is now occupied by the Adjutant General, State Headquarters for Selective Service and Headquarters for S. Dak. State Guard.

South Dakota is proud of her Guard and contribution of these combat troops to the Nation's Armed Forces. All of these Guardsmen were trained on this camp and training area. It is here that the spirit of democracy and its defense was instilled in the minds of those whose efforts are now bearing fruits on foreign fields of combat. The heritage of this spirit is bequeathed by the S. Dak. National Guard to all those who train here, and may the efforts you individually evince on the field of battle, ever be a reflection, over the entire Nation, of the bright rays of military training and education from Camp Rapid which is dedicated to the defense and preservation of our Nation.

R. F. SACKETT,
Lt. Col., M.C.A.U.S.,
State Medical Officer and Public Relations Officer.

The Roaring 75th

By Pfc Howard W. Deloatche
Pfc John W. Hardee

Out of the sand storm deserts of Washington came a husky group of boys to begin a new Squadron in the Black Hills. Slumber was wonderful until nine o'clock Sunday morning when Lt. Col, Stambaugh gave us a brief talk on "Camp Rules". The boys found the Colonel interesting and helpful and therefore resolved to make this Squadron the best in Camp Rapid.

That afternoon the boys were all seen washing, shaving, and dressing as if a wedding (their own) were about to take place. Later it was discovered that they were going to look the City over, that is the "female" portion. We can say from experience that the boys had a swell time. Some of them, an extra special time.

Monday morning rolled around and roll call by our first sergeant Robert Blum, whom we have learned is really a swell guy. We are proud of our officers and men here and we indeavor to do our best in everyting to make this Squadron the best ever to leave Camp Rapid.

Speaking of personalities, one of our boys has his lovely wife from Wyoming here in the City to keep him happy, and he is enjoying evenings at home with her, while spending the days here in camp assisting 1/Sgt Blum. This lucky doughboy is S/Sgt Szczepanski.

Another doughboy who is really responsible for the writers of this column is Pfc Hajduk. He is now legally "Goofing Off" by working in our orderly room. Talked himself into this job by using a tecnique derived by three years of service in the army. What a time.

That's about all at this time, so we say good-by until the next issue.

LONG DISTANCE

A long distance marriage has fallen through for the seventh time. And Bernice Edna Lynch, the hopeful bride-to-be has been left waiting at the telephone again.

The fact that Miss Lynch in Washington, D.C., wasn't married--by overseas telephone--to Corporal Bernard Trainor, stationed in Natal, Brazil, cannot be attributed to a lack of cooperation.

Trying to achieve success for last nite's attempt, acting Sec. of War Robert Lovett approved priority of a telegram notifying the bridegroom-to-be of the arrangements. The president of Pan-American Airways had his Miami-to-Natal pilot fly a memorandum to the Corporal. The Office of the Co-Ordinator of Inter-American affairs arranged for telephone priority. The American Red Cross cabled Trainor. The bride cabled.

But the last word received from the South American operator was "Corporal Trainor is not able to talk until further notice." The last word from the bride is, "I'll try again."

NOTHING STOPS HER!

Baltimore--Having a baby isn't going to keep Mrs. Helga Rebar from helping the War effort. Five hours after giving birth to her eighth child, Mrs. Rebar asked to return to her job in a war plant. They wouldn't let her though. And now she promises to make an issue of it.

LET'S SNAFU

The following incident does not apply to any group at Camp Rapid. Or it may apply to all. Really, we don't know. It's just something we just heard about. ON THE BEAM sent out its ace reporter, Gum Shoe, and now we present his story.

It seems that in some Camp or Field, there existed a poor relationship between a few officers and some enlisted men. Bitter animosity was developing. "And I thought we were fighting the Nazis", Gum Shoe said.

Anyhow, Gum Shoe got down to the bottom of the festering. He questioned men and they answered: "The trouble is that we are not considered or treated as human beings by some officers. We're treated as if all of us were SNAFU. Some of our leadership always threatens us with restrictions. In fact, every order carries a punishment threat. We know there are some tramps in the Army, but why should all of us have 2 strikes to start with?" Gum Shoe then, true to the profession of journalism, interviewed officers and they justified themselves: "Well, the Army depends upon military discipline. Without it, the army is without one of its most potent weapons."

We can only base ourselves on Gum Shoe's story.

Enlisted men must understand that army leadership demands respect. We're sure that 99% of the men do. Generally, orders are carried out to the letter. But, at the same time, enlisted men should be approached on the basis that they are intelligent, patriotic, decent, capable. Many were skilled workers or professional leaders before enlistment. Typical Americans, that's what all of them are. A more understanding approach would yield far greater results.

All of us should remember that we are fighting a democratic war in which BROTHERHOOD is an issue. Why not practise real Brotherhood TODAY in the ranks? There would be less bickering, less griping, and less back biting, and more work done, which would mean an earlier end to the war, and the saving of millions of lives, including possibly our own.

MILITARY DISCIPLINE SHOULD CREATE HIGH MORALE, NOT BACK FIRE!

CONGRATULATIONS

ON THE BEAM sends its best wishes to Miss Elsie E. Ferguson...who will marry 2nd. Lt. Frederick B. Hockman, Jr. of Indianapolis, Ind. on October 3. Best of Luck, many years of happiness, and please try to name the first one, ON THE BEAM.

We also extend our very best wishes to the new Captain Ralph S. Hayes of the 452nd Bomb Group who was just promoted from the rank of 1st. Lt. Congratulations, Sir, and may your fine progress continue.

We can make up our minds that we will work with any other human being who does his work besides us, and that we will not inquire as to his race or religion, only as to whether he is doing an honest job.

Gusts from the Barracks Bag

by Pine Hall

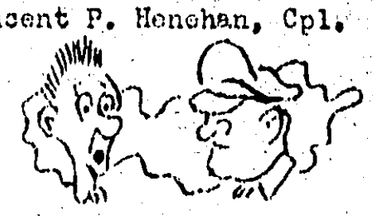
Lend an ear, GI's, Lend an ear. Much has happened since the last Gust out of the Old Bag.

In the 751st Squadron, T/Sgt. Aaron Dossin, former Group Sergeant Major, succeeded Sgt. George Morris who succeeded T/Sgt Robert Nunn as Acting 1st Sgt. T/Sgt Nunn succeeded 1st Sgt. Raffo who left the Second Air Force recently as noted in a previous column. The Traffic is terrific. Sgt. Sam Rosoff, the Courtly Cossack, Squadron Sergeant Major, has been so busy that he missed Sgt. Morris altogether and made him produce his "Dog Tags" before he could sign the payroll. T/Sgt Nunn is now Group Sergeant Major and Sgt. Morris is Duty NCO for the 751st. I seemed to have lost some one in transit. Let me see, Oh Yes, T/Sgt Dossin. Well, he's acting 1st Sgt. of the 751st.

In the 750th, 1st Sgt. Irvine has left on furlough and the Squadron continues to be half of the best looking Unit at Retreat. The 749th is still in there pitching. (Printer, watch that!)

Button-holed by S/Sgt Alexander Peter McDermott who left no room for doubt that as a motor car funcior, Cpl. Cady, of the 748th, dealt strictly in "Small Deals". Reports state that PFC Joseph G. Liebhart, got full value on his last hairout. If he hadn't held his finger across his upper lip they would have gotten his mustache, too.

The 457th Group is proud to announce a very high percentage of qualified riflemen. The 751st Squadron led the list with the experts, S/Sgt Archie L. Medlin and Sgt. Morris with scores of 184 and 179 respectively. Pvt. Frederick Kamoroski and PFC Robert J. Quiery of the 751st, Sgt. Vincent P. Henehan, Cpl. Richard C. Ender and Pvt. Albert Vaichulis of the 750th, Cpl. Oscar H. Koirtyohann of the 749th and PFC Charles Reynolds of the 748th qualified as Sharpshooters. PFC David E. Shambeough receives the condolences of this column for missing this select group by one point and we respectfully suggest that he practice on his scorekeeper.



The Chanel #5 Gust of the week goes to Cpl. Walter "POP" Cady, A Captain in the last war and the father of a Captain in this war, who enlisted in the Army Air Forces last October as a Private because he believes that the offspring of the "Pusher Type" plane that he helped the Wright Brothers assemble for the first air meet ever held in the United States, in 1910, are the greatest weapons in the world. Cpl. Cady bears the weight of his recently acquired stripes with great aplomb and has even consented to an interview by "ON THE BEAM" for a later issue. As for the stinker of the week--your reporter just got back from furlough and loves everybody.

Take a deep breath--Hold It--Adios, Muchachos.

In Jefferson's time, like today, the Fifth Column tried to confuse and divide the people. But Jefferson was not alone. Many great men rose from among the people to fight, give leadership, their fortunes and lives to establish American independence.

Among those who stood by Jefferson when he declared that the Colonists demanded complete freedom and not more taxation reforms was a great patriot and statesman, the Philadelphia financeer, Hym Solomon. ON THE BEAM is proud to present to reader information on this American Forefather, too long unsung.

Tories tried to bribe him offering untold wealth and position in a Tory America. But Hym Solomon preferred poverty, imprisonment. He was determined that democracy should triumph.

When Washington's ragged, hungry army was bleeding in the snows of Valley Forge, Hym Solomon collected money, gave his own fortune to help feed and clothe "the Continentals." History records that on one particular occasion when Washington issued an alarm for assistance, it was Yom Kippur, and Hym Solomon stood at the Synogogue observing his religion. According to his religion, Hym Solomon was prohibited from any activity on this holiday except to pray, fast and atone for sins.

He was a deeply religious man, but he placed the fate and welfare of his country, our country, above religious practice, as we may in this grave hour of world crisis. Right there in the synogogue, Mr. Solomon placed his fortune at the disposal of Washington's army and urged all others to do the same.

When the war ended, Hym Solomon was a poor man, prematurely old. But he had no regrets. He had helped build a democratic beacon which lighted the way for people of all countries. He helped create what the world today fights to preserve and extend. Hym Solomon, the Jew, our forefather, was one of the world's first great democrats.

Raton, New Mexico---Two German soldiers went to be sentenced to hard labor. They have been caught after escaping from an internment camp for prisoners-of-war at Trinidad, New Mexico. Their excuse for running away, they said, was that they had no work to do.

Detroit---Walter Pearce of Detroit liked to come home at night to a good meal & a clean house. But his wife liked to bowl. So, circuit judge Chenot granted a divorce to Pearce on charges that his wife, Crystal, spent all her time bowling for practice in tournaments. At the close of the testimony, judge Chenot asked Pearce his occupation. The bowling widower meekly replied, "I operate a bowling alley your honor."

'AMOUS SAYINGS...1st Sgt. John Boyer, "Where's that guy Cecil Adams?" Pvt. Joseph Greco, "He's resting, the poor boy as had a HARD DAY!"...Pfc Richard Wymnn's favorite quotation these days, "To be or not to be---"...What is all the gibberish that Sgt. Tomassi emits about "Me be little ohlinee boy. Me got two dollas."... THE FEMININE TOUCH...Cpl Marvin Little has developed a new feminine technique. One of the boys asked, "Have you------kissed your new lady love yet?" Cpl Little replied calmly, "I'm saving that for later." The boy has patience...Cpl Walter Cady--more generally known as "Pop" can show the boys a trick or three about the gentle art of being nice to the senoritas. His "What, dear?" will melt the heart of any damsel...Sgt Burton Anselmo's latest rave, "Boy! YOU SHOULD SEE THE HONEY OF A 1942 PLYMOUTH I PICKED UP SATURDAY NITE! BABY! WAS SHE SWEET ON THE HILLS!" Note: Not one word about the feme dame behind the wheel. She couldn't be that bad...SIXTY FOUR DOLLAR QUESTION: To Pfc Clarence Moore goes top honors for the week's best question. During a lecture on "Decontamination" the lecturer demonstrated a gadget he pronounced to be more sensitive than the human nose. Pfc Moore asked, "But Sarge, do you need that thing if you have a SENSIBLE nose?"...FUTURE BUSINESS MEN: Sgt Walter Winnes--the singing K.P. his mottos is, "Keep your customers happy, greet them with a smile and a song." You should see him swing a scythe. He looks like old father time...Sgt. Jerome Emmer--I carry the best supplies. If you should want anything--ask me. Don't be a mummer. ..SQUADRON DESCRIPTIONS: Sgt Lester Brown is the squadron's bluejay--he's always chattering...Sgt George Bodor when draped in a bath towel could double for Mahatma Gandhi. Another thing, while rolling the cubes he looks like a praying mantis...

JIVE BOMBS

Again Camp Rapid Scored. This time it was a smash hit. The Monday night shindig went over with a bang. The girls of course were the main attraction. Next came the boxing bouts. Some of the rounds were fast and furious. No punches were pulled, and judging from the number of dead fleas, bugs and moths on the canvas it doesn't augur well for the Hitlers and Hirohitos. No, there weren't enough girls to go around. And no wonder! That bunch from the Motor Pool! Irresistible Kirk took three beauties, Callie three others, while poor Shelby and Skonecky had to content themselves with a mere two apiece. Wasn't that too bad. Tch... Tch...Say, we're fighting a war against greedy monopoly..."Preacher Ward" was there but so was Pfc Weithorn with El-e-e-nor, a new girl.

The real moment of the evening came when Callie Phillips pushed everybody aside as the girls were getting off the trucks. "Come to me, darling," gasped Callie. They just flew into his strong arms. What were Kirk and Bolduc and Shelby doing under the spreading tree near the Masonic Center after we took the girls home? Thanks Norman for the music and who were you singing lullabys to over the mike? Speaking of lullabys, one must speak of Nussy. What a laff! And speaking of laffing, one can't leave out Hubbard and his new guitar. How about next Monday night, Hub?

We want to thank everybody for the big su successful show, especially Newkirk's Music Store for the recordings. Great Scott! didn't we have a swellelegant time?

Mrs. Swiecz told Judge Joseph Sabath in divorce court yesterday that her husband, before retiring, sets his alarm for one o'clock. The woman says she doesn't mind his drinking so much, but it disturbs her sleep.

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS

Since this is "Indian Country", ON THE BEAM is honored to present to readers, material on the original Americans of the Black Hills, the Sioux Indians, particularly their reaction to the war for survival in which we are now engaged.

For our information we ventured into the offices of FSA, where we interviewed Miss Theda Nelle Scott, radio commentator and County Home Supervisor for this organization. A product of the "Golden West," Miss Scott who has never seen an ocean or a coast line knows the Indian from years of personal contact and experiences as a Government employee.

"No," she said, "we have no Hollywood Indians here. No more than drug store cowboys." Miss Scott laughed broadly as South Dakotans do. "The Indians here are hard working, sober citizens. Most of them are on farms where they raise food for the armed forces and the people of our State and Country. Others are city-employed where they help turn the wheels of factory production. Regardless, all of them do their full share for victory."

According to Miss Scott, the Indians consider this their land and country. They show it by the manner in which Sioux Indian boys have flocked to enlist in the armed forces. "Records show that volunteers among Indians were greater than among white boys," she said. "However, rejections were quite high due to malnutrition and the incidence of T.B. among Indians."

The FSA social worker also related that contrary to "popular" belief, Sioux Indians are not slovenly, dirty or unambitious. "Given equal opportunities, Indians will do as well as most whites and surpass some. From my experience, I'd say that with the proper approach, the Indian responds to civilization as we know it. We've pushed the Indian around in his country long enough. I think it's about time we recognize him as an equal, as a first class American citizen, as the original American: one who today produces and gives his blood and life so that our common land and institutions shall survive."

Allied Headquarters, North Africa---Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering is ashamed of his men because he says they no longer "love battles". Allies troops in Sicily captured an order signed by Goering, bearing a July date. The order took the men to task because their "aggressive spirit" was disappearing.

Sydney--Private Bill Houghton of California may have struck it rich while prospecting for gold in the Australian back country. Houghton, who use to be a sluice mining engineer, spent his army leave prospecting and found gold ore possibly worth 20 thousand dollars a ton. Houghton is keeping the find a close secret until after the war. Then he intends to stake a claim.

Harry Miller of San Jose, California has a bantam hen that has her own ideas about how much work a self-respecting chicken should do. Recently she hatched only three chickens. So Miller thought he'd give her a little overtime and brought down 16 additional chicks from a hatchery. The hen halted. In fact, she walked out, leaving the little ones cold. However, her husband, the bantam rooster, saw his duty and did it. He took the 19 homeless chickens under his wing.

When the "Champ" Box Knocker of Camp Rapid goes to Deadwood and Lead on a Sunday A.M. and returns to Rapid City by 2 P.M. without visiting "Ma", something is wrong. This same RED Head put on a "boxing" match between 2 grasshoppers Friday during lunch hour for the benefit of the boys. Good work, Sarge.

Among his "varied" accomplishments the "grass" sprouting Sgt. from Maine is also a magician with a bag full of tricks. Did you see Burt Waithorn jump when that cigarette started popping. Brooklyn will probably declare war on the state of Maine as a result.

Pvt. Dunshee evidently knows some politician in town. He has been sporting a long fat cigar between his teeth these days.

Did anybody know that "Rebel" Barnes was a farmer. Boy, we can just see him sitting atop a plow and looking at the teeth of his favorite jackass (after the war).

Has anybody seen the toothless wonder of Camp Rapid. Jameson, that "coke" machine has suffered since you decided to become toothful again.

Has anyone heard of the "Insects Extermination Association"? Well, it seems that a crowd of the EM have decided to get rid of the pests that permeate the area surrounding the camp. Happy hunting, boys. Don't wait too long.

If the truth were known: Fongio was at the boxing Monday nite, up in the Bleachers, shouting "Shorty knock out a box." Did you see him Lindy Hop with that cute little blonde.

Nussbaum has given up rolling his own and taken to singing the boys to sleep at reveille. He is also advertising breakfast foods--shredded wheat in particular.

They talk about classic witticisms, Sarge Whistler has a stock of good ones when illustrating a point or two during drill, or calisthenics.

Thank you, Sir!

This week we had a very interesting and profitable talk with Lt. Claude L, Rains, C.O., Hq. Sq. Lt. Rains expressed great interest in our work and an equal willingness to assist ON THE BEAM to becoming a better servicemens' newspaper,

We want to publicly thank Lt, Rains for his offer of cooperation. ON THE BEAM needs this type of assistance to live and grow into the best army paper written by the men, for the men. We also hope that this new high in officer cooperation will have a deep reflection in the relationship between enlisted men and their officers, not only in Hq. Sq. but in all squadrons at Camp Rapid.

ON THE BEAM represents the men here. It speaks for the men. It is their champion, a guide and leader. Cooperation with ON THE BEAM means cooperation with the men.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Chowhound Is Missing In Action and Believed Dead---------"Chowhound" was the black fox terrier mascot of an American medium bomber crew, and a veteran of 19 missions over enemy territory. His master was Cpl Rolfe Waterman of Evansville, Ill., the tail gunner on the plane. During a recent raid over Italy, "Chowhound" ambled forward from his usual position with his master. An enemy fighter approached and the bomber's guns opened up just as the dog passed the waist gunners. "Chowhound" always nervous when he heard firing, jumped in alarm--and fell out of one of the waist gunners' windows. The little fox terrier was wearing a parachute, but nobody had a chance to pull the rip cord.

Was when people used to listen to the Good Will hour for advice to the lovelorn: Sgt. Tryber is now ministering to the needs of the EM in the 17th.

Do you know we have a windmill at Camp Rapid, If you want to see it just look at PFC Housh during calisthenics.

Mon! Camp Rapid has a future world's champ. Boxing: with the gloves-PFC Hubbard has finally consented to give away that tell-tale laugh and defend the rights of the "Fighting Seventeenth."

IMMORTAL CHINA

Cheo lai! Bu-yuan-tzo nu-lidi run-men.
ARISE! YOU WHO REFUSE TO BE BOND SLAVES.

That is the war cry of a nation that is suffering as no nation on earth has ever suffered before. Thousands upon thousands of China's countrymen have been killed and millions of them are homeless refugees because of this seven year war that they have waged against Japan.

But the Chinese have surprised everyone. Not alone by their ability as sheer fighters. They have surprised the world by their failure to succumb to certain weaknesses reportedly traditional--incompetence in their leaders, venality, and lack of popular morale and patriotism. The surprise was that national consciousness had become a passion, a feeling of oneness--oneness in suffering, oneness in hope. It is a new spirit in China--Courage. Not only do they dare to face physical dangers and difficulties without fear but they abandon old customs and ties, as well.

The masses and leaders have now awakened. They have over 20 years of accumulated experience to build upon. With the united efforts of Government officials, scholars, scientists, social workers, religious groups, and above all, with the magnificent leadership of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, there is being created a new China out of the old. Yet, the reconstruction projects that they have already created, tell their tales of destruction--such as the destruction of 23 universities, of schools, churches, hospitals and industrial enterprises.

A new nation is being born out of this destruction. China is no longer backward and inaccessible but teeming with life. She has rediscovered her West, a land of ancient and splendid culture.

The soldiers are citizens and the citizens are soldiers. Women march shoulder to shoulder with the young men. The whole nation sings its battle song and is fired with patriotism. They are determined to continue their struggle for liberty to the bitter end even though their soil be drenched with the blood of their youth and their hearths be blackened with the ashes of their demolished homes.
