

Maine Memory Network

<https://www.mainememory.net/artifact/16745/zoom>

B-24 Liberator crew, Presque Isle, ca. 1943

Item 16745

Description

A B-24 "Liberator" bomber crew poses at the Presque Isle Army Air Field before heading to Britain.

Ken Ferland, whose name is attached to the photo, was a native of Presque Isle. Standing, from left, are pilot Dave Templeton, the bombardier, who did not go overseas; co-pilot Graydon Petty, and navigator Vince Paelentonio.

Please post your comment below to share with others. If you'd like to privately share a comment or correction with MMN staff, please use this form.

Be the first to comment.

ALSO ON MAINE MEMORY NETWORK

Growing up in Lewiston and running Museum LA

1 comment • 2 years ago

Hannah — This video is great! I'm writing a research paper about French Canadians in Lewiston. One

Men unloading contraband liquor, Bethel, ca. 1920

2 comments • 10 months ago

Peter Stowell — Definitely not Bethel, ME. Probably Portland.

Boxing is not just a sport

1 comment • 10 months ago

Michael Fixaris — An iconic legend of boxing, tenacity, and sportsmanship. From Pete Riccitelli,

Julia Winters and Life in Lewiston/Auburn, Maine

1 comment • 8 months ago

Nancy Trumble Barden — I'm blown away! I love this! I'm sitting here with my brother, Mike Trumble, grandson,

Other MHS Websites

Maine Historical Society

Maine Memory Network

HW Longfellow

Vintage Maine Images

Copyright ©2000-2019 Maine Historical Society, All Rights Reserved.

Many images on this website are for sale on VintageMaineImages.com.

Maine Memory Network is a project of the Maine Historical Society. Except for classroom educational use, images and content may not be reproduced without permission. See Terms of Use.