

When the call for blood plasma came to Station 128 men of the 401st volunteered without hesitation. Here one of the "ground grippers", Capt. Samuel Goldblatt, is seen giving a pint of blood. Attendants are from the mobile blood bank, on its third visit to the station.

STATION
ORDNANCE OFFICERS

(Right) For gallantry in action over Munster Oct. 28, F/O Elmer B. Crossman was decorated with the Silver Star, shown receiving the award from Brig. Gen. J. K. Lacey, Commanding General of a combat wing in the First Bombardment Division.

